IMPORTANT – PLEASE READ: This document and the booklets and other descriptive material provided to you by Devon and the various benefit providers are written in a manner that is intended to be easily understandable and to summarize the benefits available to you under the Plans. There may be other Plan materials (such as an insurance policy or other contractual agreement with a health care or other service provider) that contain more detailed information about Plan benefits. Every effort has been made to ensure that all of these materials contain a consistent description of the Plans’ benefits. However, if there is any conflict or inconsistency between these materials, it is Devon’s responsibility as the Plan Administrator to interpret the conflicting provisions and determine what benefits will be provided under the Plans. Also, please keep in mind that the Plans, any changes to them, or any payments to you under its terms, does not constitute a contract of employment with Devon and does not give you the right to be retained in the employment of Devon. No one speaking on behalf of the Plans or Devon can alter the terms of the Plans.

I. INTRODUCTION

Devon Energy Corporation (“Devon,” the “Company” or “Plan Sponsor”) sponsors the Devon Energy Corporation Employee Benefit Plan (the “Benefit Plan”) and the Devon Energy Corporation Flexible Benefits Plan (the “Flexible Benefits Plan”). The Plans work hand in hand to provide eligible employees and dependents with a comprehensive benefit program and may be referred to herein together as “the Plans.” The Benefit Plan provides a wide variety of benefits to eligible employees, some of which are paid for by Devon and provided automatically and some of which are optional and require employee contributions. The Flexible Benefits Plan provides the pre-tax premium and flexible spending account benefits to eligible employees. Devon intends that the Flexible Benefits Plan qualify as a “cafeteria plan” within the meaning of Section 125(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), and that any premiums and contributions you pay for benefits under either Plan on a before-tax basis are excludable from your gross income for federal income tax purposes to the extent permitted by law. In some cases, your contributions may be paid on an after-tax basis as indicated in the Benefits Overview section below.

This document is the Devon Energy Corporation Employee Benefit Plan and Flexible Benefits Plan Summary Plan Description (“SPD”) and describes the Plans as in effect on January 1, 2017. This document consists of this booklet, which provides information common to all elements of the Plans and detailed information about your medical benefits, and the descriptive material made available to you by Devon and third party providers (such as insurance companies) for non-medical benefits. This document, together with the booklets and other descriptive materials you receive from Devon and third party providers, constitutes the official SPD for the Plans. (A list of the descriptive materials that form part of the SPD can be found in Appendix A.) Capitalized terms used herein shall have the meaning given to them in Appendix B. Because benefits under the Plans will be of importance to you and your family, you should retain this SPD as part of your permanent records.

Please contact HRConnect if you would like to request copies of Plan-related documents or have any questions you believe this document does not appropriately address.

III. ELIGIBILITY

Eligible Employees

Who is an Eligible Employee? In general, you are eligible to participate in all of the benefit options under the Plans as indicated below if you are a Regular Full-time Employee. A “Regular Full-time Employee” is an employee who is designated as a regular, full-time employee and who normally works at least 30 hours per week.

You are eligible to participate in some, but not all benefits under the Plans if you are a “Part-time Employee.” Part-time employees are those employees for whom a schedule of not less than 20 hours per week and not more than 30 hours per week has been approved by Devon management. Part-time employees who regularly work less than 20 hours per week are not eligible for benefits under the Plans.

“Interns” are also eligible for some, but not all benefit options under the Plans regardless of the number of hours they work.

Keep in mind that some benefit options may have different terms, conditions or limitations affecting eligibility. You should refer to the separate descriptive material for more information. A new employee must work at least one full day to be eligible for Devon benefits.

Eligibility for Benefits

- Regular Full-time Employees are eligible to participate in all benefits under the Plans.
- Part-time Employees are eligible to participate in medical, dental, vision, basic life and AD&D, voluntary life and AD&D, employee assistance program and business travel accident benefits.
- Interns are eligible to participate in medical, dental and vision benefits, a basic $50,000 AD&D and business travel accident benefit only.

Who is Ineligible? You are not eligible to participate in the Plans if you are not a Regular Full-time Employee, Part-time Employee or Intern. Persons classified by Devon in the following categories are ineligible for coverage under the Plans:

- independent contractors;
- temporary employees;
- leased employees; and
- employees of Devon Canada on other than permanent or regular long-term assignments in the U.S., as determined by Devon policy.

Persons classified in these categories remain ineligible for coverage even if subsequently reclassified as an employee by a governmental agency or court of law. In such case, eligibility for coverage may be available prospectively but shall not apply retroactively.

Eligible Dependents

Who is an Eligible Dependent? Regular Full-time and Part-time Employees can elect to provide medical (including prescription drug), dental, vision and health care flexible spending account coverage for their eligible dependents who meet the eligibility requirements set forth in this section. An employee must be covered under the Plans in order to cover any eligible dependents under the Plans. For the definition of eligible dependents under the dependent care flexible spending account, voluntary life and voluntary AD&D benefits, please see those sections below in “Description of Benefits.”

- Legal Spouse - A spouse to whom the employee is legally married in any State or foreign jurisdiction. A spouse includes common law spouses provided the employee and his or her common law spouse: (i) meet the definition of common law marriage in the state they reside, (ii) complete the Devon affidavit of common law marriage, and (iii) provide (or agree to provide) a copy of a federal income tax return reporting marital status as married.

- Dependent Child – The following categories of children are eligible for dependent coverage under the Plans until reaching age 26:
 - a biological child of the employee;
 - an adopted child of the employee;
 - a child placed for adoption with the employee; or
 - a stepchild of the employee.

Dependent children in this category are eligible for dependent coverage under the Plans until age 26 without regard to marital status, offer of other coverage through employment, tax dependent status, student status, residence or financial dependence on the employee.

- Disabled Dependent Child – If a dependent child was covered by the Plans at the time the child reaches age 26, and the child is permanently and totally disabled at that time, the Plans shall continue to cover the child for the duration of the permanent and total disability.
 - For purposes of this provision, a child is permanently and totally disabled if unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment that can be expected to result in death or that has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than 12 months.
- Dependent Legal Ward – A child for whom the employee has been appointed legal guardian by a court is an eligible dependent child provided all of the following eligibility criteria are satisfied.
 - Residence – The child must have the same principal residence as the employee.
 - Age – The child must be:
 - (a) less than nineteen (19) years of age, if the child is not a full-time student, as defined below, or less than twenty-four (24) years of age, if the child is a full-time student; or
 - (b) any age, if the child was already covered by the Plans upon reaching age 19 or 24 (if a full-time student) and is permanently and totally disabled, as defined above.

For purposes of this provision, a child is a full-time student if attending high school or post-secondary school (including accredited colleges and universities) for a minimum of 12 hours per semester (or the equivalent of 12 semester hours or more if the institution operates on a basis other than by semester). The definition of high school, accredited college or university does not include cosmetology, trade or other types of vocational schools.

A child covered by the Plans who is a full time student at an accredited post-secondary school and who takes a “Medically Necessary leave of absence” (“leave of absence”) may continue medical coverage for up to one year. A change in the child’s student status from full-time to part-time due to a serious illness or injury may constitute a leave of absence. In such case, the dependent child on a leave of absence will be covered for one year from the first day of the leave of absence, or until the date on which the coverage otherwise would end under the Plans' terms, whichever comes first.

- Financially Dependent on Employee – The child must not provide more than half of his or her own support for the Calendar Year. In general, “support includes food, shelter, clothing, medical care and education.
- Citizenship or U.S. Residency – The child must be a citizen of the U.S., a national of the U.S., or a resident of the U.S. or a country contiguous to the U.S.

Additional Plan Rules Relating to Eligible Dependents

Verification Documentation. Devon reserves the right to request documentation to verify the eligibility of your dependents at any time. You will be required to provide documentation to verify eligibility whenever you add or drop a dependent or for any change in status event under the Plans. You may also be required to provide documentation during periodic open enrollment or during periodic dependent eligibility verification audits conducted by Devon.

No Foster Child Coverage. A foster child of the employee is not eligible for dependent coverage under the Plans.

Divorced Parents. For purposes of the medical benefits (including prescription drug), dental, vision and flexible spending accounts, in the case of a child who receives over one-half of his or her support during the Calendar Year from his or her parents (i) who are divorced or legally separated under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance, (ii) who are separated under a written separation agreement, (iii) who live apart at all times during the last six months of the year, (iv) who have agreed that the custodial parent will not claim the child as an income tax exemption, and (v) where such child is in the custody of one or both parents for more than one-half of the year, such child will be considered the dependent of both parents, regardless of the child's place of residence or the amount of support provided by either parent. Contact your tax advisor or refer to IRS Publication 502 (Medical and Dental Expenses) or Publication 503 (Child and Dependent Care Expenses) for more information.

IV. PARTICIPATION

When Does Participation Begin?

Core Benefits. If you are an eligible employee, you will be automatically enrolled in the Core Benefits under the Plans as of your first day of employment.

Optional Benefits. If you are an eligible employee, you have thirty (30) days from your first day of employment to elect to participate in one or more Optional Benefits under the Plans by completing the election process established by Devon. Thereafter, you may elect to participate in Optional Benefits only (1) if you have a change in status, as described below under “Changing Your Election,” or (2) during an open enrollment period.

Failure to Make an Initial Election. If you fail to make an election for Optional Benefits upon your initial eligibility for coverage, you will be deemed to have elected no Optional Benefits and you will receive only the Core Benefits. Therefore, it is extremely important that you complete the election process within the initial period prescribed by the Plan Administrator.

Failure to Make an Election During Open Enrollment. If you fail to make an election for Optional Benefits during any annual open enrollment period after your participation has commenced, your Optional Benefit elections from the prior year may not carry over. For example, for participation in 2017, all Optional Benefits were required to be affirmatively elected except voluntary life and accidental death and dismemberment benefits. Optional Benefits under the Plan must be affirmatively elected each year unless otherwise indicated in your enrollment materials. It is important that you refer to your annual open enrollment materials each year to confirm whether you must make an affirmative election that year.

Actively at Work. Please note that some coverages may require you to be “actively at work” in order for coverage to begin or for changes to take effect. “Actively at Work” means the active expenditure of time and energy in the service of Devon, except that an employee shall be deemed to be actively at work on each day of a regular paid time off or on a regular non-working day, provided he was actively at work on the last preceding regular working day. However, with respect to coverage under a medical benefit option, you will be treated as actively at work on any day you are absent due to a health factor.

Replacement Coverage. If the medical benefit under which you are covered ceases to be offered as an option, you will be given an opportunity to elect suitable replacement coverage or you could elect to waive medical coverage under the Plans. If you do not make an election either to enroll for replacement coverage or to waive medical coverage, you will automatically be enrolled in coverage that the Plan Administrator determines is most similar to the coverage being lost and you will be responsible for the cost of that coverage.

Participation Following Cessation of Eligibility

In general, if you terminate employment or otherwise cease to be an eligible employee and you again become an eligible employee, you will be eligible to participate in the Plans immediately upon again becoming an eligible employee, provided you make any required elections and complete all required enrollment materials within 30 days of becoming eligible. If the period between your cessation of eligibility and re-commencement of participation is less than 30 days, your prior benefit elections will be restored and you will not be permitted to make new elections. If the period between your cessation of eligibility and re-commencement of participation is 30 days or more, you will be treated as a new hire.

With respect to the health care flexible spending account, your participation will be reinstated if you return to work during the same Calendar Year. Your health care flexible spending account will be reinstated at the same payroll deduction level and you will be permitted to resume submitting reimbursements to the extent your account had not been exhausted prior to your termination. However, you will not be eligible to make a new election or increase contributions until the following year.

Changing Your Election Mid-Year

Generally, federal law prohibits changes to your coverage election during the Plan Year. However, you may make a change to your election if you have a “change in status” (as described below) and the election change is on account of and consistent with the change in status. More restrictive election change rules may apply to the flexible spending accounts. For example, the only election change permitted to the Health Care Flexible Spending Account following a change in status is to either begin deferrals to a new account or to increase or decrease deferrals to your current account.

To change your coverage elections, you have thirty (30) days to notify HRConnect of the change in status and provide any proof of the change as may be required.

Failure to Provide Timely Notice or Necessary Documentation: If you fail to provide notice or the necessary supporting documentation within the applicable timeframe, your request to change your election will be denied and you will not be allowed to make changes until the next open enrollment period or sooner if you experience another qualified change in status and provide timely notice and documentation. This includes adding dependents due to marriage, birth or adoption.

The following chart provides a snapshot of the most common change in status events and required documentations listed below.

Change in Status

You may change or revoke your benefit election during the Plan Year if you experience a change in status that would lead to the loss or gain of eligibility under the Plans. A change in status includes:

- a change in your legal marital status (such as marriage, death of spouse, divorce, legal separation or annulment);
- a change in the number of your dependents (such as birth of a child, adoption or placement for adoption of a dependent, or death of a dependent);

- any of the following events that change the employment status of you or your Dependent and result in the loss of coverage or eligibility for benefits, including a:
 - termination or commencement of employment;
 - a commencement of or return from an unpaid leave of absence (but only if you are ineligible for benefits during the unpaid leave);
 - a change in worksite (but only if available benefits are different);
 - switching employment classifications from salaried to hourly-paid or part-time to full-time (or vice versa) (but only if benefit eligibility differs among employment classifications);
 - incurring a reduction or increase in hours of employment (but only if the reduction or increase in hours affects your benefit eligibility);
 - any other similar change which makes the individual become (or cease to be) eligible for a particular employee benefit; or
- an event that causes your dependent to satisfy or cease to satisfy an eligibility requirement for a particular benefit (such as attaining a specified age); or
- your eligibility to enroll in coverage through the government-sponsored health insurance marketplace during a special or annual enrollment period, provided you certify to Devon that you and any covered dependents will obtain minimum essential coverage on the health insurance marketplace immediately upon cancellation of coverage under this Plan.

The election change must be on account of and correspond with the change in status event as determined by Plans. As a general rule, a desired election change will be found to be consistent with a change in status event if the event affects eligibility for coverage under the Plans. All election changes become effective prospectively. No retroactive changes are permitted.

You have thirty (30) days to notify the Plan Administrator of a change in status event. If you fail to notify the Plan Administrator of a change in status within thirty (30) days of the event, you will lose your right to make any benefit changes until the next annual open enrollment period or until you or your dependent experience another change in status.

Special Enrollment Rights

You may also revoke or change your benefit election during the Plan Year if you experience a Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (“HIPAA”) special enrollment right that would lead to the loss or gain of eligibility under the Plans. Some of the HIPAA special enrollment rights are duplicative of the change in status rules described above. You and/or dependents will have a HIPAA special enrollment right if you and/or dependent:

- were covered under a group health plan or had health insurance coverage at the time coverage was previously offered; and
- lost your coverage under the other group health plan or health insurance coverage for reasons such as:
 - termination of COBRA continuation coverage;
 - legal separation;
 - divorce/Marriage;
 - death/Birth of a child (including adoption or placement for adoption);
 - termination of employment; or
 - reduction in hours of employment.

You have thirty (30) days to notify the Plan Administrator of a HIPAA special enrollment right. If you fail to notify the Plan Administrator of a HIPAA special enrollment right within thirty (30) days of the event, you will lose your right to make any benefit changes until the next open enrollment period or until you or your dependent experience another change in status.

Special Rule Relating to Medicaid and Children's Health Insurance Program ("CHIP"). You may also change your benefit election during the Plan Year if you or your dependent lose Medicaid or CHIP coverage or become eligible for a premium assistance subsidy under Medicaid or CHIP. You have sixty (60) days after the loss of such coverage or the eligibility determination date for such coverage to request enrollment. A notice explaining your rights with respect to premium assistance is attached as Appendix H.

When Does Participation End?

Generally, your participation under the Plans will terminate automatically as of the earliest of the following:

- the date on which the Plans, or any coverage that is part of the Plans terminates;
- the date on which your coverage terminates due to your failure to satisfy the eligibility criteria for a benefit under the Plans;
- the date on which your election to receive benefits under this Plans terminates, is revoked due to a change in status or expires;
- for medical, dental and vision benefits, the last day of the month in which you cease to be an active employee for any reason (unless you are on approved leave of absence);
- the date of your 65th birthday while on Long Term Disability
- for all other benefits, the date on which you cease to be an active employee for any reason (unless you are on approved leave of absence);
- the date you fail to make any required contributions when due; or
- the date of your death.

Special rules apply for certain leaves of absence, including for disability, military leave or family and medical leave. Please refer to page 12 of this SPD and/or contact HRConnect if you have questions about participation while on a leave of absence.

The coverage for your covered dependents will generally terminate on the earlier of the date your coverage terminates or the covered dependent no longer satisfies the eligibility criteria or the definition of dependent as described in this SPD or the insurance booklets associated with the benefit. If, however, the coverage for your covered dependents terminates due to your death, the medical benefit coverage of your covered dependents will end six months after your date of death. Additionally, if you are disabled and receiving long-term disability benefits, the medical benefits coverage of your covered dependents terminates the last day of the month in which you cease to be an active employee.

Coverage for your dependent will terminate prospectively if it is found that your dependent is ineligible for coverage. Coverage for your dependent may terminate retroactively, upon thirty (30) days' notice, if your covered dependent obtained coverage by fraud or intentional misrepresentation.

Termination of Coverage in the Event of Fraud. Notwithstanding any of the above, your participation in the Plans may also terminate if you or your covered dependents:

- provide false information or make a misrepresentation in connection with a claim for benefits;
- permit a non-eligible person to use a membership or other identification card for the purpose of wrongfully obtaining benefits;
- obtain or attempt to obtain benefits by means of false, misleading or fraudulent information, acts or omissions; or
- fail to provide documents requested by the Plans to verify representation made by you in connection with eligibility or continued eligibility for benefits for yourself or your dependents.

If your participation or your covered dependent's participation in the Plans is terminated due to any of the reasons described above, you and your dependent shall not be eligible to re-enter the Plans again until the next open enrollment period or unless you or your dependent experience a special enrollment right during the Plan Year.

Authorized Leaves of Absence

Devon may continue coverage during certain periods of absence, such as absence by reason of sickness, disability, or other authorized leave of absence (including military leaves), in accordance with its personnel policies and practices and to the extent prescribed by law. Devon's personnel policies and practices describe the different types of leaves of absence, how long benefits are continued during a leave of absence, what employee contributions are required during the leave and how those contributions are made, and what your rights and obligations are under those policies and applicable federal and state law. Employees and former employees on disability leave and receiving long-term disability benefits will no longer be eligible for coverage under the Plans if they reach age 65, are no longer disabled or their long-term disability benefit is terminated for any reason.

If you are permitted to revoke an existing election while on a leave of absence, you will not be entitled to receive payment on any claims incurred following your election to revoke participation. Upon return from such leave, you may choose to be reinstated in the Plans on the same terms as prior to taking leave, but you may not retroactively elect coverage for claims incurred following your election to revoke participation.

V. PAYING FOR YOUR COVERAGE

If you elect to purchase Optional Benefits under the Plans or contribute to a flexible spending account, you are required to contribute a portion of your compensation for such coverage. The contribution you are required to pay is determined by Devon each year, may differ depending upon your eligible employment category and may be adjusted during the year to reflect any increases or decreases.

The maximum amount deducted from your pay may not exceed the total of after-tax and pre-tax contributions for Core and Optional Benefits you elect under the Plans.

After-tax Contributions. Your contributions for voluntary life and voluntary AD&D insurance will be deducted from your pay on an after-tax basis.

Pre-tax Contributions. Your contributions for medical coverage (including prescription drug), dental, vision and any contributions you elect to make to a flexible spending account will be deducted from your pay before federal income taxes, state income taxes or Social Security taxes are withheld (some local income/wage taxes may apply), meaning that you purchase coverage with more valuable before-tax dollars. Therefore, you will be taxed on a slightly lower gross income and your taxes will be lower. Because your before-tax contributions are not subject to Social Security taxes, your Social Security benefit at retirement may be slightly reduced if your earnings are under the Social Security Taxable Wage Base ($127,200 for 2017 –). However, the loss in retirement benefits should be more than offset by the tax savings under the Plans.

VI. DESCRIPTION OF BENEFITS

This section briefly summarizes the benefits available under the Plans and describes some important rules regarding your annual elections. If you have any questions about the enrollment process or any of the options available to you, please contact HRConnect.

Medical, Dental and Vision Benefits

Medical Benefits. If you elect medical benefits, you will be responsible for contributing toward the coverage you elect. Your contributions will be deducted from your pay on a pre-tax basis.

In addition, Full-time Employees also have an opportunity to earn a wellness incentive each year by completing wellness-related activities through the Wellness portal. The amount of the wellness incentive will be determined by Devon and communicated to employees each year. Part-time Employees and Interns may participate in wellness-related activities but are not eligible for the wellness incentive.

1. DETAILED SCHEDULE OF PPO+ MEDICAL BENEFITS

The PPO+ medical benefit under the Benefit Plan covers certain Medically Necessary treatments administered by licensed medical practitioners. Devon expects and encourages you to review this SPD and its appendices which describe your benefit package, including detailed information about your medical benefits. We encourage all Participants to be selective medical consumers and assume a major role in keeping the cost of medical services at a minimum.

A list of definitions that apply to all medical benefits is provided at Appendix B. A more detailed list of covered medical expenses, exclusions from coverage and information about the cost management program are attached in Appendix C.

The benefit is structured as a Preferred Provider Organization (“PPO”) high-deductible health plan with various medical providers. Enhanced benefits are available for most services rendered by a PPO provider. With the exception of recommended preventive care services which are provided to you at no cost, the PPO+ medical plan pays no benefit until you have satisfied the individual or family deductible, as applicable. The Benefit Plan will also pay in accordance with the PPO+ benefits for eligible expenses incurred for related Non-PPO Ancillary Services which are rendered in a PPO network Hospital.

Health Savings Account

If you are a Regular Full-time or Part-time Employee and elect the PPO+, you will be offered the opportunity to establish a health savings account (HSA).* An HSA is an individual trust or custodial account, separately established and maintained by you with a qualified trustee/custodian. You may elect to contribute funds to your HSA each pay period on a pre-tax basis up to the legally permissible limit. While HSA contributions are made possible under the terms of the Plan, the HSA itself is not part of the Plan, is not covered by ERISA, and is not sponsored or endorsed by Devon. Devon cannot guarantee that you are eligible to establish an HSA. You should be sure you are HSA-eligible before electing this option.

If you are a Regular Full-time Employee and participate in the medical plan, but are ineligible to establish an HSA, Devon may establish a health reimbursement account (HRA) for you and make an employer contribution into your HRA each quarter based wellness-related activities.* You may not elect to contribute additional funds to an HRA. For more information about the HRA, see the “Wellness Programs” section of this SPD.

 Part-time Employees and Interns who elect the PPO+ are not eligible to receive HSA or HRA employer contributions. However, Part-time Employees who elect the PPO+ option are eligible to establish an HSA and elect pre-tax employee contributions.*

2. DETAILED SCHEDULE OF PPO+ PRESCRIPTION DRUG BENEFITS

Your PPO+ medical benefit coverage includes prescription drug benefits administered by CVS Caremark for you and your eligible dependents. A list of definitions that apply to this section is provided at Appendix B. A detailed list of covered prescription drug expenses and exclusions from coverage is attached as Appendix D.

With the exception of drugs that are considered recommended preventive drugs which are provided to you at no cost and preventive maintenance drugs for which you pay a copay (discussed below), the PPO+ medical plan pays no benefit until you have satisfied the individual or family deductible, as applicable. After the Deductible is satisfied, outpatient prescription drugs will be covered in the following manner through the prescription drug coverage:

Pharmacies:

Copay per Prescription (30-day supply maximum per prescription):

Preventive Drug.....	$0 copay, no Deductible
Preventive Maintenance Drug	Applicable copay or coinsurance, no Deductible
Maintenance Drug	Applicable copay or coinsurance after Deductible
Generic Drug	$10 copay after Deductible
Preferred Drug	30% ($40 min - $125 max) after Deductible
Non-Preferred Drug	40% ($60 min - $185 max) after Deductible

Mail Order:

Copay per Prescription (90-day supply maximum per prescription):

Preventive Drug.....	$0 copay, no Deductible
Preventive Maintenance Drug	Applicable copay or coinsurance, no Deductible
Maintenance Drug	Applicable copay or coinsurance after Deductible
Generic Drug	$20 copay after Deductible
Preferred Drug	30% ($80 min - $250 max) after Deductible
Non-Preferred Drug	40% ($120 min - $370 max) after Deductible

Preventive prescription drugs are medications designated by federal government guidelines under the Affordable Care Act as preventive. They are not subject to the deductible and you will not pay copays or coinsurance for them. They are covered at 100%.

Preventive maintenance prescription drugs are medications you take regularly that CVS Caremark believes meet the IRS definition of preventive for purposes of HSA-eligibility when enrolled in a high-deductible health plan. They are not subject to the Deductible. However, you will pay copays or coinsurance for them.

Maintenance prescription drugs are medications you take regularly that CVS Caremark believes do not meet the IRS definition of preventive for purposes of HSA-eligibility when enrolled in a high-deductible health plan. They are subject to the Deductible and you will pay copays or coinsurance for them.

The Benefit Plan requires generic substitution, if available. Once the Deductible is met, if a Covered Participant chooses a Preferred or Non-Preferred Drug instead of its generic substitute, the participant not only pays the applicable copay, but also the difference in cost between the two drugs.

The Benefit Plan also requires mail-order refills for all Maintenance Drugs, including drugs that are considered preventive maintenance. A Covered Participant may fill a Maintenance Drug three times at a retail Pharmacy then the mail-order Pharmacy must be utilized. If the Maintenance Drug is filled a fourth time, the employee is responsible for the full cost of the drug. Cost associated with the fourth refill will not be applied to the deductible.

Drugs and medicines prescribed by a licensed Physician and dispensed by a licensed pharmacist are covered by the Benefit Plan. Outpatient prescription drugs will be covered subject to the applicable Deductible and/or copay amounts, Benefit Percentages, and any limitations as stated in Benefit Plan.

Information regarding whether the prescription drug coverage is “creditable coverage” when compared to Medicare Part D is attached as Appendix I.

3. DETAILED SCHEDULE OF DENTAL BENEFITS

The Claims Administrator will determine and certify in writing the maximum amount of work or treatment and charges for which payment will be made. This certification is not a guarantee of payment. Any pre-certification of charges previously issued to a Covered Participant will be of no effect after the date such person's coverage under the Benefit Plan terminates.

“SERVICES INCURRED” AND “SERVICES PERFORMED” - Charges shall be allocated to a particular Calendar Year and to the Deductible or maximum applicable to such year, in accordance with the date such charge is deemed “incurred.” All charges which are “incurred” with respect to any treatment plan shall be deemed “incurred” on the date the service is actually “performed.”

4. DETAILED SCHEDULE OF VISION BENEFITS

Full-time, Part-time employees and Interns have two options – Basic or Premier coverage. Your contributions will be deducted from your pay on a pre-tax basis.

Vision benefit coverage for Regular Full-time, Part-time Employees and Interns includes vision benefits for you and your dependents. Your vision benefits reimburse 100% of the cost of annual eye exams (including retinal imaging) and a significant portion of costs associated with glasses (including frames and lenses) and contact lenses as provided in the chart above.

The initial purchase of lenses required after cataract surgery is covered under the regular medical benefit provisions of the Benefit Plan.

5. WELLNESS PROGRAMS

From time to time the Plan may offer wellness programs designed to promote the health and well-being of all employees. These wellness programs may provide financial incentives such as a tobacco surcharge or HRA or HSA contribution to engage in activities that encourage healthy lifestyle changes, provide you with information about your current health condition by undergoing health screenings or answering questionnaires, give you the opportunity to receive health “coaching” and participate in disease management programs, provide on-line education tools, etc. These wellness programs are designed to help mitigate risks and allow you to be more involved in your healthcare, which may lead to a healthier employee population with lower healthcare costs, ultimately saving you and Devon money. Any information collected as part of a wellness program will be de-identified and may be analyzed and considered when developing future wellness programs and making future plan design changes affecting all participants. The terms of any wellness programs will be communicated to you separately as part of open enrollment material or other communication. Devon is committed to helping you achieve your best health. Rewards for participating in a wellness program are available to all employees. If you think you might be unable to meet a standard for a reward under this wellness program or need a reasonable accommodation due to disability, you might qualify for an opportunity to earn the same reward by different means. Contact us and we will work with you (and, if you wish, with your doctor) to find an activity with the same reward that is right for you in light of your health status. Any wellness program and related financial incentive offered under the Plan shall comply with the requirements and limitations of HIPAA, PPACA, EEOC and related guidance.

WELLNESS ASSESSMENT

Each enrolled employee and spouse, if applicable, in the Benefit Plan will be given an opportunity to complete wellness-related activities through the Wellness portal. Participation in this process helps participants understand their own health risks and also helps Devon keep the cost of medical coverage down by identifying areas where participants may benefit from proactive preventive health services.

Completion of the wellness activities is completely voluntary and Regular Full-Time employees receive wellness incentives based upon their level of participation in the Wellness portal. However, to encourage participation, there is no cost to the employee or spouse to complete the wellness assessment and biometric screening and Regular Full-time Employees receive a wellness incentive for participating in this confidential and valuable tool. You will not be required to answer questions concerning family medical history. If you participate in the PPO+ medical plan, Devon will deposit the designated wellness incentive into your HSA. If you participate in the PPO+ but are ineligible for an HSA due to Medicare enrollment, Devon will credit a health reimbursement account (see below) with the designated wellness incentive. You should refer to your annual enrollment materials for details about the wellness incentive opportunity each year. Part-time Employees and Interns may participate in the wellness activities but are not eligible to earn a wellness incentive.

The biometric screening should be performed by your own doctor but will only be paid at 100% if your doctor is in-network.

HEALTH REIMBURSEMENT ACCOUNT

Devon may establish an HRA for you if you participate in the PPO+ medical benefit but are ineligible for an HSA due to Medicare enrollment. An HRA is an employer-funded account that you can use to pay for qualified medical expenses. You may not make additional contributions to an HRA. If you have a residual amount in your HRA at the end of the Plan Year, it will carry over and be available for reimbursements the following year. However, if you elect a different medical option in a future year, your employment ends or you are no longer eligible for Devon benefits, your participation in the HRA terminates. You will have three months from the end of the Plan Year in which to submit claims. If you participate in the HRA and also the Health FSA, your eligible claims will first run through the Health FSA and then the HRA account. You are not eligible to receive employer contributions or make pre-tax payroll contributions to an HSA if you have funds available to you in an HRA.

Other Benefits

The following is intended to provide only a brief summary of the other benefits under the Plans. Additional, more detailed information about each of the following benefit options below, including insurance booklets, benefit limitations and beneficiary forms is available on HRConnect or by contacting the Devon Employee Benefits Department. See the section entitled "Plan Information – Claims Administrator" for provider contact information. It is important that you refer to the provider-specific information for a complete description of the following benefits.

1. Basic Life/AD&D Coverage

Basic life insurance and accidental death and dismemberment insurance coverage are provided to you by Devon at no cost to you. Eligible Regular Full-time and Part-time Employees are provided with coverage of two times base annual salary up to a maximum of $1 million dollars. Eligible interns are automatically enrolled in a $50,000 accidental death and dismemberment benefit.

Note: The first $50,000 of basic life insurance coverage is tax-free. However, under current federal tax laws, if you have basic life insurance coverage in excess of $50,000, the amount in excess of $50,000 results in taxable income to you. Although this income is not actually received by you in your paycheck, it is taxable to you and must be reported as such on your Form W-2.

2. Voluntary Life Insurance

Voluntary life insurance coverage, including coverage for your spouse and/or dependent children is available to Regular Full-time and Part-time Employees. Interns are not eligible to elect voluntary life insurance. If you elect to receive voluntary life insurance under the Plans, you will be responsible for paying for the coverage you elect on an after-tax basis. For purposes of dependent child coverage under the voluntary life insurance coverage, eligible dependent children are unmarried children up to age 19 or up to age 24, if a full-time student. A dependent child may not be covered by more than one employee. For additional limitations on dependent coverage, please see the certificate of coverage.

3. Voluntary AD&D Insurance

Voluntary AD&D coverage, including coverage for your spouse and/or dependent children is available to Regular Full-time and Part-time Employees. Interns are not eligible to elect voluntary AD&D coverage. If you elect to receive voluntary AD&D insurance under the Plans, you will be responsible for paying for the coverage you elect on an after-tax basis. For purposes of dependent child coverage under the voluntary AD&D insurance, eligible dependent children are unmarried children up to age 19 or up to age 25, if a full-time student. A mentally or physically disabled dependent child incapable of self-sustaining employment and chiefly dependent on you for support may also qualify as a dependent child if proof of incapacity and dependency is submitted prior to attainment of age 19 or 25. A dependent child may not be covered by more than one employee. For additional limitations on dependent coverage, please see the certificate of coverage.

4. Short-Term Disability Coverage

Short-term disability benefits replace a portion of your income if you become disabled and are unable to work. This coverage is provided to Regular Full-time Employees at no cost as a salary continuation by Devon. Part-time Employees and Interns are not eligible for short-term disability coverage. The benefit begins on the 8th day of your disability and expires when you are no longer disabled or after 180 days, whichever occurs first.

5. Long-Term Disability Coverage

Long-term disability coverage replaces a portion of your income if you become disabled and are unable to work. This coverage is provided to Regular Full-time Employees at no cost. Part-time Employees and Interns are not eligible for long-term disability coverage. Your long-term disability compensation will be equal to 60% of your monthly compensation up to a maximum benefit per month. The benefit begins on the 181st day of your disability and expires when you are no longer disabled or your attainment of Social Security retirement age, whichever occurs first.

6. Flexible Spending Accounts

Flexible spending accounts (“FSAs”) provide valuable benefits designed to give Regular Full-time and Part-Time Employees a tax-effective way to reimburse yourself on a tax-free basis for certain health care and dependent care expenses. Interns are not eligible to participate in the FSAs. If you elect to establish one or more FSAs, the contributions you elect will be deducted from your pay on a before-tax basis. The flexible spending accounts under the Flexible Benefits Plan are administered by Infinisource.

The following description is only a highlight of the benefit, restrictions and limitations. Additional information, instructions and claim forms are available from the claims administrator at www.infinisource.com.

The following general rules apply to both types of flexible spending account.

Use it or Lose it. Plan your expenses carefully. If you do not incur eligible expenses by December 31, non-reimbursed funds are forfeited. You may not carry over balances from year to year or receive a refund of unused amounts. You may submit claims until March 31 of the following year for expenses incurred during the preceding Calendar Year. Devon uses any unclaimed money to offset the administrative costs of the Plans.

Separate Accounts. You may not use money from the health care flexible spending account to pay for dependent care expenses, or money from the dependent care flexible spending account to pay for health care expenses. If you wish to pay for health care and dependent care expenses on a pre-tax basis, you must elect and contribute to both accounts.

Spending Account or Tax Deduction, or Tax Credit, not Both. You may not claim a tax deduction or tax credit for any expenses reimbursed through a flexible spending account.

Restrictions on Contributions by Highly Compensated Employees. Both spending accounts must meet stringent IRS tests that compare the benefits of employees who are highly compensated with all other employees. If these tests are not met, the amount contributed by the highly paid group of employees may be taxed and/or reduced.

Health Care Flexible Spending Account

The Health Care Flexible Spending Account (“Health Care FSA”) may be used to pay any health care expense that would qualify for a medical deduction under IRS rules, with the exception of premiums paid for other health plan coverage (including Medicare or plans maintained by the employer of your spouse or dependent) and certain long-term care expenses. Generally, the expenses covered must be “Medically Necessary” or prescribed by a licensed Physician to qualify. Expenses must be incurred on behalf of you, your spouse and any dependent. You may contribute up to $2,500 to a Health Care FSA. The Health Care FSA is a limited excepted benefit under Code Section 9831.

Eligible Expenses

Health care expenses generally include, but are not limited to:

- Deductibles and copays;
- medical, dental, prescription drug and vision expenses not covered by any insurance or a benefit plan; and
- prescribed medication.

Expenses eligible for reimbursement include only those expenses for medicines or drugs if the medicine or drug is a prescribed drug (determined without regard to whether the medicine or drug is available without a prescription) or is insulin.

Ineligible Expenses

In general, any expenses that cannot be claimed as medical expenses for income tax purposes are not reimbursable. Ineligible expenses include, but are not limited to:

- premiums for health insurance;
- certain long-term care expenses;
- cosmetic surgery (except in limited circumstances);
- electrolysis;
- health club dues not related to a specific medical condition;
- non-prescription medicines and drugs;
- dental bonding and bleaching;
- services for which any insurance reimburses you; and
- services rendered before you become a participant in the Flexible Benefits Plan and after your participation has ended.

Refer to www.infinisource.com for more information on eligible and ineligible expenses.

Claims. Claims for reimbursement, including substantiation of the expense, must be submitted timely by March 31 following the end of the Plan Year in which the expense was incurred in accordance with the claim instructions at www.infinisource.com.

HSA. You are not eligible to receive employer contributions or make pre-tax payroll contributions to an HSA if you have funds available to you in a general purpose Health Care FSA.

Dependent Care Flexible Spending Account

The Dependent Care Flexible Spending Account (“Dependent Care FSA”) is designed to help you pay for eligible expenses directly related to the “well-being and protection” of a “qualifying individual” (defined below).

To be eligible, the services must make it possible for you and your spouse to work or to attend school on a full-time basis. Any type of dependent care that you could legally claim if you were filing for credit on your income taxes is eligible for funding under the Dependent Care FSA. You may contribute up to $5,000 to a Dependent Care FSA. You should note that your contributions in any Calendar Year will be limited to $5,000 as well.

For the purposes of this plan, a qualifying individual includes the following:

- your child, grandchild, brother or sister who is under age 13, who resides in your household for more than one-half of the year and who does not provide more than one-half of his or her own support for the year (if you are divorced or separated, certain qualifications and special custody/support rules may apply);
- a disabled spouse who resides in your household for more than one-half of the year; and
- a disabled relative or household member who is principally dependent on you for support and who resides in your household for more than one-half of the year.

Note: A disabled dependent must spend at least eight hours a day in your home. A disabled dependent who is confined to an institution for care would not qualify.

To be eligible to use this account, you must be actively working during the time your eligible dependent is receiving care; provided, however, that care provided during certain “short” or “temporary” absences for illness or paid time off may be eligible if you are required to pay for such care on a weekly or longer basis. Also, if you work part-time, you do not have to allocate expenses between time worked and time not worked if you are required to pay for care on a weekly or longer basis.

Qualifications for Dependent Care Flexible Spending Account

You qualify to use this account if:

- you are a single parent;
- you have a working legal spouse;
- your spouse is a full-time student for at least five (5) months during the year you are working;
or
- your spouse is disabled and unable to provide for his or her own care.

Eligible Expenses

Eligible dependent care expenses include:

- services provided to care for eligible dependents while you are at work, as long as the provider submits a tax ID or social security number;
- household services, if attributable to the care of your dependent;

- the services of a day care center (if the center provides care for more than six individuals, other than residents, it must comply with all applicable state and local laws);
- the services at a day camp, including a camp that specializes in a particular activity (such as a soccer or computer camp);
- care for a disabled dependent provided outside your home as long as the dependent is a child under age 13 or is in your home for at least eight hours a day;
- certain education expenses—for example, the cost of nursery school, including lunches—if your child is not yet in the first grade;
- expenses for care provided in your home, as long as the care is not provided by someone you or your spouse claims as a dependent on your federal income tax return, or your child who is under age 19 (even if you no longer claim that child as a dependent); and
- agency fees, application fees or deposits, if you are required to pay these expenses in order to obtain the related care.

To make sure your situation and the type of care being provided meets IRS requirements; refer to IRS Form 2441 and IRS Publication 503, “Child and Dependent Care Expenses” or visit www.infinisource.com. In addition, you should know that if you use a dependent care provider inside your home you may be considered the employer of that individual and may be responsible for withholding and paying employment taxes. For more information, refer to IRS Publication 926, “Employment Taxes for Household Employees.” These forms and publications are available on the IRS website (www.irs.gov), and also should be available at your local post office or public library.

Ineligible Expenses

In general, any expenses that cannot be claimed as dependent care expenses for income tax purposes are not reimbursable. Ineligible expenses include, but are not limited to the following:

- overnight camp;
- activity fees;
- non-employment related care, such as babysitting fees during non-working hours;
- school transportation;
- schooling in the first grade and beyond; and
- pre-first grade schooling that can be separated from the cost of care.

Maximum Tax-Free Reimbursement

Generally, amounts reimbursed from your Dependent Care FSA are tax-free to you. However, federal law provides that the amount excluded from your gross income cannot exceed the lesser of:

- $5,000 ($2,500 if you are married and filing separate federal income tax returns);
- your annual income; or
- your legal spouse’s annual income.

If your spouse is (1) a full-time student for at least five months during the year or (2) physically and/or mentally handicapped, there is a special rule to determine his or her annual income. To calculate the income, determine your spouse’s actual taxable income (if any) earned each month that he or she is a full-time student or disabled. Then, for each month, compare this amount to either $250 (if you claim expenses for one dependent) or $500 (if you claim expenses for two or more dependents). The amount you use to determine your spouse's annual income is the greater of the actual earned income or these assumed monthly income amounts of either $250 or $500. By making an election under the Flexible Benefits Plan to contribute to a Dependent Care FSA, you are representing to the Company that your contributions to the Account are not expected to exceed these limits.

Claims. Claims for reimbursement, including substantiation of the expense, must be submitted timely by March 31 following the end of the Plan Year in which the expense was incurred in accordance with the claim instructions at www.infinisource.com.

Interns are not eligible to participate in the EAP. 8. Business Travel Accident Coverage

This coverage is provided by Devon to Full-time and Part-time employees at no cost to you and provides coverage of five times base salary up to $2 million dollars.

9. Tuition Reimbursement

Privacy of Health Information

The receipt, use and disclosure of protected health information by the medical, employee assistance program and health care flexible spending account portions of the Plans are governed by regulations issued under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA). In accordance with these regulations, the Plan Administrator, certain employees of the Plans and the Plans' business associates may receive, use and disclose protected health information in order to carry out payment, treatment and health care operations under the Plans. These entities and individuals may use protected health information for such purposes without your consent or written authorization. In addition, your protected health information may be shared with the Plan Sponsor without your consent or written authorization for administrative purposes. In the normal course, if your protected health information is used or disclosed for any other purpose, your written authorization for such use or disclosure will be required. See Appendix G for information regarding the privacy of your protected health information.

VII. CLAIMS PROCEDURE

A request for benefits is a "claim" subject to these procedures only if it is filed by you or your authorized representative in accordance with the Plans' claim filing guidelines. In general, claims must be filed in writing with the applicable provider identified in the "Plan Information – Claims Administrator" section of this SPD. Any claim that does not relate to a specific benefit under the Plans (for example, a general eligibility claim or a dispute involving a mid-year election change) must be filed with the Plan Administrator at the address set forth in the “Additional Information” section below. A request for prior approval of a benefit or service where prior approval is not required under the Plans is not a “claim” under these rules. Similarly, a casual inquiry about benefits or the circumstances under which benefits might be paid under the Plans is not a “claim” under these rules, unless it is determined that your inquiry is an attempt to file a claim. If a claim is received, but there is not enough information to allow the Claims Administrator to process the claim, you will be given an opportunity to provide the missing information.

If you want to bring a claim for benefits under a Plan, you may designate an authorized representative to act on your behalf so long as you provide written notice of such designation to the Claims Administrator identifying such authorized representative. In the case of a claim for medical benefits involving urgent care, a health care professional who has knowledge of your medical condition may act as your authorized representative with or without prior notice.

Medical Benefits

The following claims procedures apply to medical benefits (including prescription drug), dental, vision and health care flexible spending account benefits provided under the Plans.

Claims Procedures

Post-Service Claims

Post-service claims are those claims that are filed for payment of benefits after medical care has been received. Claims must be submitted to the Claims Administrator no later than December 31 following the end of the Plan Year in which the service occurred. Claims must be in the form specified and include all documentation required by the Claims Administrator. If your post-service claim is denied, you will receive a written notice from the Claims Administrator within 30 days of receipt of the claim, as long as all needed information was provided with the claim. The Claims Administrator will notify you within this 30-day period if additional information is needed to process the claim and may request a one-time extension, not to exceed 15 days. Your claim will remain pending until all information is received.

Once notified of the need for additional information, you have 45 days to provide the required information. If all of the needed information is received within the 45-day time frame and the claim is denied, the Claims Administrator will notify you of the denial within 15 days after the information is received. If you don't provide the required information within the 45-day period, your claim will be denied.

A denial notice will explain the reason for denial, refer to the part of the Benefit Plan or Flexible Benefits Plan on which the denial is based and provide the claim appeal procedures. You will also be provided with a description of any other material or information necessary for you to re-submit the claim as well as explanation as to why the information is necessary.

Pre-Service Claims

Pre-service claims are those claims that require notification or approval prior to receiving medical care. If your claim is a pre-service claim and is submitted properly with all needed information, you will receive written notice of the claim decision from the Claims Administrator within 15 days of receipt of the claim.

If you file a pre-service claim improperly, the Claims Administrator will notify you of the improper filing and how to correct it within five days after the pre-service claim is received. If additional information is needed to process the pre-service claim, the Claims Administrator will notify you of the information needed within 15 days after the claim was received and may request a one-time extension, not to exceed 15 days. Your claim will remain pending until all information is received.

Once notified of the extension, you have 45 days to provide the required information. If all of the needed information is received within the 45-day time frame, the Claims Administrator will notify you of the determination within 15 days after the information is received. If you don't provide the required information within the 45-day period, your claim will be denied. A denial notice will explain the reason for denial, refer to the part of the Benefit Plan or Flexible Benefits Plan on which the denial is based, and provide the claim appeal procedures. You will also be provided with a description of any other material or information necessary for you to re-submit the claim as well as explanation as to why the information is necessary.

Urgent Claims that Require Immediate Action

Urgent care claims are those claims that require notification or approval prior to receiving medical care, where a delay in treatment could seriously jeopardize your life or health or the ability to regain maximum function or, in the opinion of a Physician with knowledge of your medical condition, could cause severe pain. In these situations:

You will receive notice of the benefit determination in writing or electronically within 72-hours after the Claims Administrator receives all necessary information, taking into account the seriousness of your condition.

Notice of denial may be oral with a written or electronic confirmation to follow within three days.

If you filed an urgent care claim improperly, the Claims Administrator will notify you of the improper filing and how to correct it within 24 hours after the urgent claim was received. If additional information is needed to process the claim, the Claims Administrator will notify you of the information needed within 24 hours after the claim was received. You then have 48 hours to provide the requested information.

You will be notified of a determination no later than 48 hours after:

- the Claims Administrator's receipt of the requested information; or
- the end of the 48-hour period within which you were to provide the additional information, if the information is not received within that time.

A denial notice will explain the reason for denial, refer to the part of the Benefit Plan or Flexible Benefits Plan on which the denial is based, and provide the claim appeal procedures. You will also be provided with a description of any other material or information necessary for you to re-submit the claim as well as explanation as to why the information is necessary.

Concurrent Care Claims

If an on-going course of treatment was previously approved for a specific period of time or number of treatments and your request to extend the treatment is an urgent care claim as defined above, your request will be decided within 24 hours, provided your request is made at least 24 hours prior to the end of the approved treatment. The Claims Administrator will make a determination on your request for the extended treatment within 24 hours from receipt of your request. If your request for extended treatment is not made at least 24 hours prior to the end of the approved treatment, the request will be treated as an urgent care claim and decided according to the timeframes described above.

If an on-going course of treatment was previously approved for a specific period of time or number of treatments and you request to extend treatment in a non-urgent circumstance, your request will be considered a new claim and decided according to post-service or pre-service timeframes, whichever applies.

With respect to the concurrent care claims, if your claim is denied, you will be notified of the denial at a time sufficiently in advance of the reduction or termination in treatment to allow you to appeal and obtain a determination on review of the denial before the treatment is reduced or terminated.

Finding Out the Status of a Claim

For information about the status of a claim, you can log on to the Claims Administrators website or call the Claims Administrator directly. When you call, have the date of service, the bill amount, the provider name and your identification number from your ID card ready.

You will receive an Explanation of Benefits (“EOB”) for each claim filed, describing the expenses submitted, any exclusions or Deductibles and the benefits paid, if any.

Appeal Procedures

If you feel an error has been made in your records or in processing your claim, you should know that an appeals procedure is available to you.

The chart in the “Plan Information” section of this SPD lists the names, addresses and phone numbers of the insurer or Claims Administrator responsible for the plan option. If you have a question about a claim, you can contact the appropriate administrator directly.

Appealing a Claim

This section provides information to help you with the following:

- if you have a question or a concern about your benefits under one of the medical plan options; or
- you are notified that a claim has been denied because it has been determined that a service or benefit is excluded under one of the medical plan options and you wish to appeal such determination.

What to Do First

If your question or concern is about a benefit determination, you may informally contact the Claims Administrator before requesting a formal appeal. If the Claims Administrator representative cannot resolve the issue to your satisfaction over the phone, you may submit your question to the Claims Administrator in writing.

If you are not satisfied with a benefit determination as described in the “Claims Procedures” section of this SPD, you may appeal it as described below, with or without first informally contacting the Claims Administrator. If you first informally contact the Claims Administrator and later wish to request a formal appeal in writing, you should contact the Claims Administrator and request a formal appeal, at which time you will be provided with the appropriate address for submitting your appeal.

If you are appealing an urgent care claim denial, please refer to the “Urgent Claim Appeals that Require Immediate Action” information in this section and contact the Claims Administrator immediately.

How to Appeal a Claim Decision

If you disagree with a claim determination after following the above steps, you can contact the Claims Administrator in writing to formally request an appeal. If the appeal relates to a claim for payment, your request should include:

- the patient’s name and the identification number from your ID card;
- the date(s) of service(s);
- the provider’s name;
- the reason you believe the claim should be paid; and
- any documentation or other written information to support your request for claim payment.

Your first appeal request must be submitted to the Claims Administrator within 180 days after you receive the claim denial.

Appeal Process

A qualified individual who was not involved in the decision being appealed will be appointed to decide the appeal. If your appeal is related to clinical matters, the review will be done in consultation with a health care professional, who was not involved in the prior determination, and has appropriate expertise in the field.

With your consent to share the pertinent claim information, the Claims Administrator may consult with, or seek the participation of, medical experts as part of the appeal resolution process. Upon request, you have the right to reasonable access to and copies of all documents, records, and other information relevant to your claim for benefits, including the right to know the identification of any medical or vocational experts whose advice was obtained, free of charge.

First Level of Appeal - Appeal to Claim Administrator

Pre-Service and Post-Service Claim Appeals

You will be provided written or electronic notification of the decision on your appeal as described below.

- For appeals of pre-service claims (as defined in the “Claims Procedures” section of this SPD), the first level appeal will be conducted and you will be notified by the Claims Administrator of the decision within 15 days from receipt of a request for appeal of a denied claim.
- For appeals of post-service claims (as defined in the “Claims Procedures” section of this SPD), the first level appeal will be conducted and you will be notified by the Claims Administrator of the decision within 30 days from receipt of a request for appeal of a denied claim.

Please note that decisions are based only on whether or not benefits are available under the Benefit Plan or Flexible Benefits Plan for the proposed treatment or procedure. The determination as to whether the pending health service is necessary or appropriate is between you and your Physician.

Second Level of Appeal - Appeal to Claim Administrator
Pre-Service and Post-Service Claim Appeals

If you are not satisfied with the first level appeal decision of the Claims Administrator, you have the right to request a second level appeal. Your second level appeal request must be submitted to the Claims Administrator within 60 days from receipt of first level appeal decision.

For appeals of pre-service claims (as defined in the “Claims Procedures” section of this SPD), the second level appeal will be conducted and you will be notified by the Claims Administrator of the decision within 15 days from receipt of a request for appeal of a denied claim.

For appeals of post-service claims (as defined in the “Claims Procedures” section of this SPD), the first level appeal will be conducted and you will be notified by the Claims Administrator of the decision within 30 days from receipt of a request for appeal of a denied claim.

The Claims Administrator has the exclusive right to interpret and administer the Devon medical plan options and these decisions are conclusive and binding.

Please note that decisions are based only on whether or not benefits are available under the Benefit Plan or Flexible Benefits Plan for the proposed treatment or procedure. The determination as to whether the pending health service is necessary or appropriate is between you and your Physician.

Urgent Claim Appeals that Require Immediate Action

Your appeal may require immediate action if a delay in treatment could significantly increase the risk to your health, the ability to regain maximum function or cause severe pain. In these urgent situations:

The appeal does not need to be submitted in writing. You or your Physician should call the Claims Administrator as soon as possible. The Claims Administrator will provide you with a written or electronic determination within 72 hours following receipt of your request for review of the determination taking into account the seriousness of your condition.

For urgent claim appeals, Devon has delegated to the Claims Administrator the exclusive right to interpret and administer the provisions of the Benefit Plan or Flexible Benefits Plan. The Claims Administrator’s decisions are conclusive and binding.

Flexible Benefits Plan, the Claims Administrator will notify you within the initial 90-day period that the Claims Administrator needs up to an additional 90 days to review your claim.

Notice and Information Contained in Notice Denying Initial Claim

If the Claims Administrator denies your claim (in whole or in part), the Claims Administrator will provide you with written notice of the denial. This notice will include the following:

- the specific reason or reasons for the denial;

- a description of any additional material or information necessary for you to perfect your claim and explanation why such information is necessary; and

Appealing a Denied Claim for Benefits

If your initial claim for benefits under the Dependent Care Flexible Spending Account is denied by the Claims Administrator, you may appeal the denial by filing a written request with the Claims Administrator within 60 days after you receive the notice denying your initial claim for benefits. If you decide to appeal a denied claim for benefits, you will be able to submit written comments, documents, records, and other information relating to your claim for benefits (regardless of whether such information was considered in your initial claim for benefits) to the Claims Administrator for review and consideration. You will also be entitled to receive, upon request and free of charge, access to and copies of, all documents, records and other information that is relevant to your appeal.

Time Periods for Responding to Appealed Claims

If you appeal a denied claim for benefits under the Dependent Care Flexible Spending Accounts, the Claims Administrator will respond to your claim within 60 days after receipt of the appeal. If the Claims Administrator determines that an extension is necessary due to matters beyond the control of the Flexible Benefits Plan, the Claims Administrator will notify you within the initial 60-day period that the Claims Administrator needs up to an additional 60 days to review your claim.

Notice and Information Contained in Notice Denying Appeal

If the Claims Administrator denies your claim (in whole or in part), the Claims Administrator will provide you with written notice of the denial. This notice will include the following:

- the specific reason or reasons for the denial;
- reference to specific provisions on which the denial is based; and
- a statement that you are entitled to receive, upon request and free of charge, access to and copies of, all documents, records and other information that is relevant to your claim and/or appeal for benefits.

The decision of the Claims Administrator shall be final and conclusive on all persons claiming benefits under the Flexible Benefits Plan, subject to applicable law. If you challenge the decision of the Claims Administrator, a review by a court of law will be limited to the facts, evidence and issues presented during the claims procedure set forth above. The appeal process described herein must be exhausted before you can pursue the claim in court. Facts and evidence that become known to you after having exhausted the Claims procedure may be submitted for reconsideration of the appeal in accordance with the time limits established above. Issues not raised during the appeal will be deemed waived.

External Review

An external review may be available for final adverse benefit determinations involving (1) medical judgment (excluding those that involve only contractual or legal interpretation without any use of medical judgment) as determined by the external reviewer, or (2) rescission of coverage (i.e., a retroactive termination of coverage, whether or not the rescission has any effect on any particular benefit at the time). Claimants in urgent care situations and those receiving an ongoing course of treatment may proceed with expedited external review at the same time as the internal appeals process. External review is not available for final adverse determinations that relate to a failure to meet the eligibility requirements under the Plan. If your claim for benefits has been denied and you received a final adverse benefit determination in response to your subsequent appeal, the notification of final adverse benefit determination will provide instructions on how to request an external review. You may also contact the medical benefit Claims Administrator or HRConnect for more information on how to request an external review.

All Other Benefits

You should follow the claims procedures set forth in the “Claim Procedures” section of the insurance certificate of coverage available on HRConnect or other benefit summary provided to you by the insurer or provider. Contact the Claims Administrator for the benefit listed in “Funding and Claims Administrator Information” in Article IX.

Legal Actions

If you wish to bring a claim-related legal action against Devon, you must first go through the claims and appeals procedures described in this SPD or applicable insurance certificate. You may choose to bring legal action after the second level of appeal by the Claims Administrator. You may not bring legal action more than 12 months after you’ve gone through the appeals process.

VIII. CONTINUATION OF MEDICAL COVERAGE UNDER COBRA

Under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (“COBRA”), you and/or your spouse and dependent children may be eligible to continue health coverage if your or their coverage ends because of certain “qualifying events.” The right to continue coverage may apply to medical, dental and vision benefits, EAP and FSA coverage. You may have additional rights to continued benefits under state law. Appendix F contains a notice outlining the continuation of coverage available under COBRA.

Special Rules Apply to Health Care Flexible Spending Account. Note that regulations issued by the IRS provide that continuation of coverage rights under COBRA are applicable with respect to arrangements such as the health care flexible spending account, but special rules apply. First, COBRA continuation coverage will be offered only if your reimbursements for the year under the health care flexible spending account at the time coverage is lost do not exceed the total contributions to the Spending Account for the year. Second, if COBRA continuation coverage is offered under the health care flexible spending account it will only be offered for the balance of plan year in which coverage is lost and will not be offered for subsequent years.

Please be aware that any contributions you make under the health care flexible spending account pursuant to COBRA will be made on an after-tax basis at a rate of 102% of the amount available for reimbursement. Therefore, the chief advantage of participating in the account – that is, the tax savings attributable to payment of qualifying expenses with before-tax dollars – will not be available to you.

Additional General Plan Information

Nondiscrimination

Contributions and benefits under the Plans will not discriminate in favor of “highly compensated employees” or “key employees” as those categories of employees are defined in the Internal Revenue Code. Devon may limit or deny your compensation reduction agreement to the extent necessary to avoid such discrimination in compliance with federal law.

Amendment or Termination of Plan

Devon reserves the right to suspend, amend, modify, or terminate the Plans in any manner at any time, including the right to modify or eliminate any cost-sharing between Devon and participants.

Changes are made by action of Devon’s board of directors, or to the extent authorized by resolution of its board of directors or by the Devon Energy Corporation Benefits Committee.

The procedure for amendment or modification of the Plans, programs, or policies shall consist of the lawful adoption of a written amendment or modification to the Plans, programs, or policies by majority vote at a validly held meeting or by unanimous, written consent, followed by the filing of such duly adopted amendment or modification by the secretary with the official records of the company. Participants will be notified in due course concerning substantial changes.

Benefits for claims occurring after the effective date of plan modification or termination are payable in accordance with the revised plan documents.

All statements in this book, the official plan documents, and all representations by Devon or its personnel are subject to this right of amendment, modification, suspension, or termination. These rights apply without limitation, even after an individual’s circumstances have changed by retirement or otherwise.

Plan benefits do not become vested. In the event either of the Plans is terminated, assets held in trust, if any, for the Plans will be used to provide benefits for employees of Devon or a successor, or they may be used in other ways not prohibited by the Internal Revenue Code or regulations.

No Contract of Employment

The Plans are not intended to be, and may not be construed as constituting, a contract or other arrangement between you and Devon that you will be employed for any specific period of time.

Loss of Benefits

Except as might otherwise be described in the separate descriptive booklets, your coverage generally ends as on the day of employment termination or loss of eligibility. There are also circumstances which may result in ineligibility or in denial, loss, suspension, offset, reduction or recovery of medical benefits that a Participant otherwise expected the Devon Plan to provide. These circumstances include, but are not limited:

- subrogation, recovery and third-party recovery rights of the Plans;
- coordination of benefits when a Participant is enrolled in more than one plan and the Devon Benefit Plan is not the primary plan;
- possible reductions when private Hospital rooms are used and for certain Multiple Surgical Procedures;

- reductions due to charges that exceed Usual and Customary Charges;
- reductions or denials due to services that are not generally accepted as appropriate, and/or which are not Medically Necessary, and/or which are considered as over utilization;
- treatment, services or supplies that are excluded from coverage by the Benefit Plan, whether or not Medically Necessary;
- non-compliance with the Benefit Plan's precertification requirements; or
- non-compliance with a claims filing deadline of a benefit under the Plans.

Third Party Liability / Subrogation

General Principle

When you or your dependent receive benefits under the Benefit Plan which are related to medical expenses that are also payable under workers' compensation, any statute, any uninsured or underinsured motorist program, any no fault or school insurance program, any other insurance policy or any other plan of benefits, or when related medical expenses that arise through an act or omission of another person are paid by a third party, whether through legal action, settlement or for any other reason, you or your dependent shall reimburse the Benefit Plan for the related benefits received out of any funds or monies you or your dependent recovers from any third party.

Specific Requirements and Benefit Plan Rights

Because the Benefit Plan is entitled to reimbursement, the Benefit Plan shall be fully subrogated to any and all rights, recovery or causes of actions or claims that you or your dependent may have against any third party. The Benefit Plan is granted a specific and first right of reimbursement from any payment, amount or recovery from a third party. This right to reimbursement is regardless of the manner in which the recovery is structured or worded, and even if you or your dependent has not been paid or fully reimbursed for all of their damages or expenses.

The Benefit Plan's share of the recovery shall not be reduced because the full damages or expenses claimed have not been reimbursed unless the Benefit Plan agrees in writing to such reduction. Further, the Benefit Plans' right to subrogation or reimbursement will not be affected or reduced by the "Make Whole" Doctrine, the "fund" doctrine, the "Common Fund" Doctrine, comparative/contributory negligence, "collateral source" rule, "attorney's fund" doctrine, regulatory diligence or any other equitable defenses that may affect the Benefit Plan's right to subrogation or reimbursement.

The Benefit Plan may enforce its subrogation or reimbursement rights by requiring you or your dependent to assert a claim to any of the benefits to which you or your dependent may be entitled. The Benefit Plan will not pay attorneys fees or costs associated with the claim or lawsuit without express written authorization from Devon.

If the Benefit Plan should become aware that you or your dependent has received a third party payment, amount or recovery and not reported such amount, the Benefit Plan, in its sole discretion, may suspend all further benefits payments related to you or any of your dependents until the reimbursable portion is returned to the Benefit Plan or offset against amounts that would otherwise be paid to or on behalf of you or your dependents.

Participant Duties and Actions

By participating in the Benefit Plan you and your dependents consent and agree that a constructive trust, lien or an equitable lien by agreement in favor of the Benefit Plan exists with regard to any settlement or recovery from a third person or party. In accordance with that constructive trust, lien or equitable lien by agreement, you and your dependents agree to cooperate with the Benefit Plan in reimbursing it for Benefit Plan costs and expenses.

Once you or your dependent has any reason to believe that you or they may be entitled to recovery from any third party, you or your dependent must notify the Benefit Plan. At that time, you and your dependent (and your or their attorney, if applicable) must sign a subrogation/reimbursement agreement that confirms the prior acceptance of the Benefit Plan's subrogation rights and the Benefit Plan's right to be reimbursed for expenses arising from circumstances that entitle you or your dependent to any payment, amount or recovery from a third party.

If you or your dependent fails or refuses to execute the required subrogation/reimbursement agreement, the Benefit Plan may deny payment of any benefits to you and any of your dependents until the agreement is signed. Alternatively, if you or your dependent fails or refuses to execute the required subrogation/reimbursement agreement and the Benefit Plan nevertheless pays benefits to or on behalf of you or your dependent, you or your dependent's acceptance of such benefits shall constitute agreement to the Benefit Plan's right to subrogation or reimbursement.

You and your dependent consent and agree that you or they shall not assign your or their rights to settlement or recovery against a third person or party to any other party, including their attorneys, without the Benefit Plan's consent. As such, the Benefit Plan's reimbursement will not be reduced by attorneys' fees and expenses without express written authorization from Devon.

Coordination of Medical Benefits

The Benefit Plan has a coordination of benefits feature with respect to medical benefits. This prevents duplication of benefits if you or your dependent is covered by more than one medical plan. When a claim is made, the "primary" plan pays benefits first, without regard to the other plan. When the Benefit Plan is secondary, the Benefit Plan calculates what it would have paid if it were primary and reduces benefits by what the other plan has paid.

The Benefit Plan will not supplement the other plan but will coordinate with the other plan to bring your reimbursement to what the Benefit Plan would have paid. In no circumstances will the Benefit Plan pay more than it would have paid if it were your primary coverage. Generally, the plan covering a person as an employee is the "primary" plan while the plan covering the same person as dependent is the "secondary" plan.

Coordination of benefits rules apply whenever you or a dependent is covered by more than one insurance plan. Plan includes any other type of coverage for persons in a group—whether the plan is fully insured or self-insured. No-fault auto insurance that is required by law is also included, even if it is not provided on a group basis. The level of benefits required by law will be considered when benefits are coordinated.

Coordination with Other Medical Plans (Other than Medicare)

Primary and secondary plans are determined as follows:

- The plan covering a person as an employee is the primary plan, and the plan covering the same person as a dependent is the secondary plan.
- For dependent children, the plan of the parent whose birthday occurs earlier in the Calendar Year is primary (regardless of the year of birth). If both parents have the same birthday, the plan that has covered a parent for the longer period is primary. If the other plan follows a gender rule (i.e., male's plan pays first) instead of the birthday rule to determine order of benefits, the other plan's provision will apply.

In the case of separated or divorced parents, primary and secondary plans are determined as follows:

- If a court decree awards joint custody but does not specify which parent is responsible for health care expenses, the rules above apply.
- If a court decree has given financial responsibility for medical care for eligible dependent children to one parent, the plan of this parent is primary.
- If there is not a court decree establishing financial responsibility for medical care for eligible dependent children,
 - the plan that covers the parent with custody pays first;
 - if the parent with custody has remarried, the plan of the custodial parent pays first, then the plan of the stepparent and last, the plan of the parent without custody.

If none of these rules apply, the plan that has covered the individual for the longest period of time is primary.

Coordination Under the Benefit Plan Medical Options

Coordination depends on whether you or your dependents obtain care on an in-network or out-of-network basis, and on which plan is primary.

For example, assume your spouse is covered under his or her employer's plan (which is therefore primary) and as your dependent under one of the Benefit Plan medical options. Let's also assume Deductibles under the two plans have been met. If your spouse received medical care that was not provided by an in-network provider, the Benefit Plan medical option will pay benefits using the Usual and Customary Charge as the basis for calculating coordination of benefits. Likewise, when an in-network provider is used, the Benefit Plan medical option will pay benefits using the negotiated rate as the basis for calculating coordination of benefits.

Coordination with Medicare

If you are an active employee or covered dependent and become eligible for Medicare, your Benefit Plan medical coverage will be your primary source of coverage (with Medicare secondary), unless you elect otherwise. If your eligibility for Medicare is due to End Stage Renal Disease, the Benefit Plan will continue to cover you for up to 30 months, as required by law. In such case, the Benefit Plan will be your primary source of coverage (with Medicare secondary) during this period. If you also cover your spouse (and he or she is not covered as an employee under another employer's plan), your Benefit Plan medical coverage is primary for your spouse as well, regardless of whether your spouse is under or over age 65.

If you are receiving long-term disability benefits from Devon and are covered under the Plans, once you become Medicare-eligible, your group sponsored medical coverage will be secondary to Medicare.

Recoupment

The Plans have the right to recover any mistaken payment, any overpayment, any payment that is made to any individual who was not eligible for that payment or any payment that was required to have been made to the Plans under the “Third Party Liability” section above. The Plans, or its designee, may withhold or offset future benefit payments, sue to recover such amounts, or may use any other lawful remedy to recoup any such amounts.

No Assignment of Benefits

You cannot assign, pledge, encumber or otherwise alienate any legal or beneficial interest in benefits under the Plans, and any attempt to do so will be void. The payment of benefits directly to a health care provider, if any, shall be done as a convenience to the Covered Participant and shall not constitute an assignment of benefits under the Plans.

Qualified Medical Child Support Order

If a qualified medical child support order (“QMCSO”) issued in a domestic relations proceeding (e.g., a divorce or legal separation proceeding) requires you as a parent to cover a child who is not in your custody, you may do so. To be qualified, a medical child support order must include:

- name and last known address of the parent who is covered under the Benefit Plan;
- name and last known address of each child to be covered under the Benefit Plan;
- type of coverage to be provided to each child; and
- period of time the coverage is to be provided.

QMCSOs should be sent to the Plan Administrator. Upon receipt, the Plan Administrator will notify you and describe the Plan’s procedures for determining if the order is qualified. If the order is qualified, you may cover your children under the Benefit Plan. As a beneficiary covered under the Benefit Plan, your child will be entitled to information that the Benefit Plan provides to other beneficiaries under ERISA’s reporting and disclosure rules. You may receive from the Plan Administrator, without charge, a copy of the Benefit Plan’s QMCSO procedures.

Women’s Health and Cancer Rights Act

The Women’s Health and Cancer Rights Act requires group health plans that provide coverage for mastectomies to cover reconstructive surgery and prostheses following mastectomies. All medical plans and HMOs provide this coverage, subject to applicable Deductibles and coinsurance.

If you receive benefits for a Medically Necessary mastectomy, and if you elect breast reconstruction after the mastectomy, you will also be covered for:

- reconstruction of the breast on which the mastectomy was performed;
- surgery and reconstruction of the other breast to produce a symmetrical appearance;
- prostheses; and
- treatment of physical complications of all stages of mastectomy including lymphedema.

Newborns’ and Mothers’ Health Protection Act

Group health plans and health insurance issuers generally may not, under federal law, restrict benefits for any Hospital length of stay in connection with childbirth for the mother or newborn child to less than 48 hours following a vaginal delivery or less than 96 hours following a cesarean section.

However, federal law generally does not prohibit the mother's or newborn's attending provider, after consulting with the mother, from discharging the mother or her newborn earlier than 48 hours, or 96 hours, as applicable. In any case, plans and issuers may not, under federal law, require that a provider obtain authorization from the plan or the insurance issuer for prescribing a length of stay not in excess of 48 hours or 96 hours.

Mental Health Parity

The medical benefits under the Benefit Plan will provide parity between mental health or substance use disorder benefits and medical/surgical benefits with respect to financial requirements and treatment limitations under group health plans and health insurance coverage offered in connection with the Plan, as required by Code Section 9812 and ERISA Section 712, and the regulations thereunder.

- Lifetime or Annual Dollar Limits. The Plan will not impose an aggregate lifetime or annual dollar limit, respectively, on mental health or substance use disorder benefits.
- Financial Requirement or Treatment Limitations. The Plan will not apply any financial requirement or treatment limitation (whether quantitative or nonquantitative) to mental health or substance use disorder benefits in any classification (as determined by the Plan Administrator in accordance with applicable regulations) that is more restrictive than the predominant financial requirement or treatment limitation of that type applied to substantially all medical/surgical benefits in the same classification.
- Criteria for medical necessity determinations. The criteria for making medical necessity determinations relative to claims involving mental health or substance use disorder benefits will be made available by the Plan Administrator to any current or potential Participant, beneficiary, or in-network provider upon request.

The manner in which these restrictions apply to the Plan will be determined by the Plan Administrator in its sole discretion in light of applicable regulations and other guidance.

Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act

No Lifetime or Annual Limits. The Benefit Plan does not impose a lifetime or annual limit on the dollar value of Essential Health Benefits provided. Essential Health Benefits are health-related items and services that fall into ten categories, as defined in PPACA §1302 and further determined by the Secretary of Health and Human Services.

For purposes of determining whether a benefit or service is an Essential Health Benefit for purposes of permissible annual or lifetime limits and cost sharing limits (see below) under PPACA, the Plan has chosen the State of Utah as its benchmark state.

No Rescission of Coverage. The Benefit Plan will not cancel or discontinue medical benefits with a retroactive effect with respect to you or your covered dependents except in the event of fraud, intentional misrepresentation, nonpayment of premiums, etc.

No Pre-Existing Condition Exclusion. The Benefit Plan will not impose a pre-existing condition exclusion on medical benefits.

No Cost Sharing on Recommended Preventive Care. The medical benefits under the Benefit Plan will not require participant cost-sharing on recommended Preventive Care provided by in-network providers. Preventive Care services covered in-network at 100% will be reviewed annually and updated prospectively to comply with recommendations of:

- the United States Preventive Care Task Force;
- the Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices that have been adopted by the Director of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention; and
- the Comprehensive Guidelines supported by the Health Resources and Services Administration.

Coverage of Clinical Trials. Medical benefits under the Benefit Plan shall not deny participation in an approved clinical trial for which a covered person is a “qualified individual with respect to the treatment of cancer or another life-threatening disease or condition, or deny (or limit or impose additional conditions on) the coverage of routine patient costs for drugs, devices, medical treatment, or procedures provided or performed in connection with participation in such an approved clinical trial. A covered person participating in such an approved clinical trial will not be discriminated against on the basis of his or her participation in the approved clinical trial. For purposes of this provision, the terms “qualified individual,” “life threatening disease or condition,” “approved clinical trial” and “routine patient costs” shall have the same meaning as found in Section 2709 of the Public Health Services Act.

Cost Sharing Limits. Medical benefits under the Benefit Plan shall comply with the overall cost-sharing limit (i.e., out-of-pocket maximum) mandated by PPACA. For purposes of this provision, cost-sharing includes deductibles, co-insurance, co-pays or similar charges, and any other required expenditure that is a qualified medical expense with respect to Essential Health Benefits covered under the Plan. Cost-sharing shall not include premiums, balance billing amounts for non-network providers or spending for services that are not covered under the Plan. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Devon reserves the right to maintain bifurcated out-of-pocket maximums as permitted by law.

Patient Protections. To the extent applicable, medical benefits under the Benefit Plan shall comply with the patient protections regarding choice of health care professionals and Medical Emergency care services under Public Health Services Act § 2719A.

X. STATEMENT OF ERISA RIGHTS

As a participant in the Plans, you are entitled to certain rights and protections under ERISA. ERISA provides that all participants will be entitled to:

Receive Information About Your Plans and Benefits

- Examine, without charge, at the Plan Administrator’s office and at other specified locations, such as worksites, all documents governing the Plans, including insurance contracts and collective bargaining agreements, and a copy of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) filed by the Plans with the U.S. Department of Labor and available at the Public Disclosure Room of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.
- Obtain, upon written request to the Plan Administrator, copies of documents governing the operation of the Plans, including insurance contracts and collective bargaining agreements, and copies of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) and updated SPD. The Plan Administrator may make a reasonable charge for the copies.

- Receive a summary of the Plans' annual financial reports. The Plan Administrator is required by law to furnish each participant with a copy of this summary annual report.
- Continue health care coverage for yourself, spouse or dependent children if there is a loss of coverage under the Plans as a result of a qualifying event. You or your dependents may have to pay for such coverage. Review this SPD and the documents governing the Plans on the rules governing your COBRA continuation coverage rights.

Prudent Actions by Plan Fiduciaries

In addition to creating rights for participants ERISA imposes duties upon the people who are responsible for the operation of the employee benefit plan. The people who operate your Plans, called "fiduciaries" of the Plan, have a duty to do so prudently and in the interest of you and other participants and beneficiaries. No one, including your Company or any other person, may fire you or otherwise discriminate against you in any way to prevent you from obtaining a welfare benefit or exercising your rights under ERISA.

Enforce Your Rights

If your claim for a welfare benefit is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you have a right to know why this was done, to obtain copies of documents relating to the decision without charge, and to appeal any denial, all within certain time schedules.

Under ERISA, there are steps you can take to enforce the above rights. For instance, if you request materials from the Plans and do not receive them within 30 days, you may file suit in a federal court. In such a case, the court may require the Plan Administrator to provide the materials and pay you up to $110 a day until you receive the materials, unless the materials were not sent because of reasons beyond the control of the Plan Administrator. If you have a claim for benefits that is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you may file suit in a state or federal court. In addition, if you disagree with the Benefit Plan's decision or lack thereof concerning the qualified status of a medical child support order, you may file suit in a federal court. If it should happen that the Plan fiduciaries misuse the Plan's money, or if you are discriminated against for asserting your rights, you may seek assistance from the U.S. Department of Labor, or you may file suit in a federal court. The court will decide who should pay court costs and legal fees. If you are successful the court may order the person you have sued to pay these costs and fees. If you lose, the court may order you to pay these costs and fees, for example, if it finds your claim is frivolous.

Assistance With Your Questions

If you have any questions about your Plans, you should contact the Plan Administrator. If you have any questions about this statement or about your rights under ERISA, you should contact the nearest office of the Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, listed in your telephone directory or the Division of Technical Assistance and Inquiries, Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, D.C. 20210. You may also obtain certain publications about your rights and responsibilities under ERISA by calling the publications hotline of the Employee Benefits Security Administration at (866)444-EBSA (3272). “Allowable Charge” means an average contract rate for network providers. In the event that Allowable Charge does not equate to the billed charges, you will be responsible for the difference, along with any applicable Coinsurance and Deductible amounts. THIS DIFFERENCE MAY BE CONSIDERABLE. To find out an estimate of the Plan's allowable charge for a particular service, you may call the customer service number shown on the back of your Identification Card.

“Ambulatory Surgical Facility” means any public or private specialized facility (state licensed and approved whenever required by law) with an organized medical staff of Physicians, that:

- (3) does not provide accommodations for patients to stay overnight.

“Ancillary Services” means services rendered in connection with inpatient or outpatient care in a Hospital or in connection with a Medical Emergency including the following: ambulance, anesthesiology, assistant surgeon, pathology, and radiology. The plan provides care to meet the special needs of the family unit during the final stages of a terminal illness and during bereavement. Care is provided by a team made up of trained medical personnel, homemakers, and counselors. The team acts under an independent hospice administration and it helps the family unit cope with physical, psychological, spiritual, social and economic stresses.

“Hospice Care Program” means a formal program directed by a Physician to help care for a person with a life expectancy of six (6) months or less. “Hospital Expenses” means charges by a Hospital for room and board and/or for care in an Intensive Care Unit, provided that its charges for such care are furnished at the direction of a Physician. “Illness” means a bodily disorder, disease, physical or mental sickness, functional nervous disorder, pregnancy or complication of pregnancy. “Maintenance Drug” means prescriptions commonly used to treat conditions that are considered chronic or long-term as determined by CVS Caremark. For purposes of the PPO+ plan and HSA eligibility, some Maintenance Drugs are also determined to be preventive Maintenance Drugs by CVS Caremark. “Medical Emergency” means treatment for an injury, illness or condition manifesting itself by acute symptoms of sufficient severity, including severe pain, such that a reasonable and prudent layperson could expect the absence of medical attention to result in:

- serious jeopardy to the covered person’s health;
- serious impairment to bodily function; or
- serious dysfunction of any bodily organ or part.

Such conditions include but are not limited to suspected heart attack, loss of consciousness, actual or suspected poisoning, acute appendicitis, heat exhaustion, convulsions, emergency medical care rendered in accident cases and other acute conditions. For purposes of benefits payable under the Benefit Plan, the Claims Administrator will determine the existence of a Medical Emergency.

“Medical Services Advisory Program or MSA” means the program established by the Claim Administrator to perform a review of inpatient Hospital covered services prior to such services being rendered.

“Medically Necessary” means the expense incurred upon the recommendation and approval of a Physician for the medical services and supplies generally furnished for cases of comparable nature and severity in the particular geographical area concerned. - (2) appropriate with regard to standards of good medical practice;
- (3) not primarily for the convenience of the patient, the Physician or other provider; and
- (4) the most appropriate level of services which can safely be provided to the patient.

When applied to an inpatient, it means that the patient’s medical symptoms or conditions require that the services or supplies cannot be safely provided to the patient as an outpatient.

The fact that a Physician might prescribe, order, recommend, or approve a service or supply does not, in itself, make it Medically Necessary or make the charge an allowable expense under the Benefit Plan, even though it is not specifically listed as an exclusion.

“Medicare” means the program of medical care benefits provided under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act of 1965 as amended.

“Mental Health Unit” means the unit established by the Claims Administrator to perform preadmission review and length of stay review for inpatient Hospital services for treatment of Mental Illness or Substance Abuse.

NOTE: All of the exclusions in this section include complications resulting from any excluded coverage, including, but not limited to, any reversal procedure unless stated otherwise.

COST MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

The Claim Administrator has established the Medical Services Advisory Program (MSA) to perform a review of inpatient Hospital covered services prior to such services being rendered.

The MSA Program is staffed primarily by registered nurses and other personnel with clinical backgrounds. The Physicians in our medical department are an essential part of the MSA Program.

Failure to contact the MSA or to comply with the determinations of the MSA will result in a reduction in benefits. The MSA's toll-free telephone number is on your Blue Cross and Blue Shield identification card. Please read the provisions below very carefully. The MSA Program provisions described below are subject to the claims and appeals procedures of the Benefit Plan described in the "Claims Procedure" section of this SPD. Preadmission review claims are considered to be "Pre-Service Claims" under this section.

The provisions of the MSA Program section do not apply to the treatment of Mental Illness and Substance Abuse rehabilitation treatment. The provisions for the treatment of Mental Illness and Substance Abuse rehabilitation treatment are specified in the Claim Administrator's Mental Health Unit section of this Appendix.

A. PREADMISSION REVIEW – NONEMERGENCY / NON-MATERNITY INPATIENT

(1) Inpatient Hospital Preadmission Review

Preadmission review is not a guarantee of benefits. Actual availability of benefits is subject to eligibility and the other terms, conditions, limitations, and exclusions of the Benefit Plan.

Whenever a nonemergency or non-maternity inpatient Hospital admission is recommended by your Physician, you must, in order to receive maximum benefits described in this SPD, call the MSA. This call must be made at least one business day prior to the Hospital admission.

If the proposed Hospital admission or health care services are not Medically Necessary, it will be referred to the Claim Administrator's Physician for review. If the Claim Administrator's Physician concurs that the proposed admission or health care services are not Medically Necessary, some days, services or the entire hospitalization will be denied. The Hospital and your Physician will be advised by telephone of this determination, with a follow-up notification letter sent to you, your Physician and the Hospital. The MSA will issue these notification letters promptly. However, in some instances, these letters will not be received prior to your scheduled date of admission.

(2) Emergency Admission Review

Emergency admission review is not a guarantee of benefits. Actual availability of benefits is subject to eligibility and the other terms, conditions, limitations, and exclusions of the Benefit Plan.

In the event of an emergency admission, you or someone who calls on your behalf must, in order to receive maximum benefits described in this SPD, notify the MSA no later than two business days or as soon as reasonably possible after the admission has occurred. If the call is made any later than the specified time period, you will not be eligible for maximum benefits.

(3) Maternity Admission Review

Maternity admission review is not a guarantee of benefits. Actual availability of benefits is subject to eligibility and the other terms, conditions, limitations, and exclusions of the Benefit Plan.

In the event of a maternity admission, you or someone who calls on your behalf must, in order to receive maximum benefits described in this SPD, notify the MSA no later than two business days after the admission has occurred in order to have the inpatient Hospital admission reviewed. If the call is made any later than the specified time period, you will not be eligible for maximum benefits.

B. CASE MANAGEMENT

After your case has been evaluated, you may be assigned a case manager. In some cases, if your condition would require care in a Hospital or other health care facility, the case manager may recommend an alternative treatment plan.

Alternative benefits will be provided only so long as the Claim Administrator determines that the alternative services are Medically Necessary and cost effective. The case manager will continue to monitor your case for the duration of your condition. The total maximum payment for alternative services shall not exceed the total benefits for which you would otherwise be entitled under the Benefit Plan. Provision of alternative benefits in one instance shall not result in an obligation to provide the same or similar benefits in any other instance. In addition, the provision of alternative benefits shall not be construed as a waiver of any of the terms, conditions, limitations, and exclusions of the Benefit Plan.

C. LENGTH OF STAY/SERVICE REVIEW

Length of stay/service review is not a guarantee of benefits. Actual availability of benefits is subject to eligibility and the other terms, conditions, limitations, and exclusions of the Benefit Plan.

Upon completion of the preadmission or emergency admission review, the MSA will send you a letter confirming that you or your representative called the MSA. A letter assigning a length of service or length of stay will be sent to your Physician and/or the Hospital.

An extension of the length of stay/service will be based solely on whether continued inpatient care or other health care service is Medically Necessary as determined by the MSA. In the event that the extension is determined not to be Medically Necessary, the length of stay/service will not be extended, and the case will be referred to the Claim Administrator's Physician for review.

D. MEDICALLY NECESSARY DETERMINATION

The decision that inpatient care or other health care services or supplies are not Medically Necessary will be determined by the MSA. Should the Claim Administrator's Physician concur that the inpatient care or other health care services or supplies are not Medically Necessary, written notification of the decision will be provided to you, your Physician, and/or the Hospital or other provider, and will specify the dates that are not in benefit. For further details regarding Medically Necessary care and other exclusions from coverage under the Benefit Plan see Appendix C.

The MSA does not determine your course of treatment or whether you receive particular health care services. The decision regarding the course of treatment and receipt of particular health care services is a matter entirely between you and your Physician. The MSA's determination of Medically Necessary care is limited to merely whether a proposed admission, continued hospitalization or other health care service is Medically Necessary under the Benefit Plan.

In the event that the Claim Administrator determines that all or any portion of an inpatient Hospitalization or other health care service is not Medically Necessary, the Claim Administrator will not be responsible for any related Hospital or other health care service charge incurred.

Remember that your Benefit Plan does not cover the cost of hospitalization or any health care services and supplies that are not Medically Necessary. The fact that your Physician or another health care provider may prescribe, order, recommend or approve a Hospital stay or other health care service or supply does not of itself make such hospitalization, service or supply Medically Necessary. Even if your Physician prescribes, orders, recommends, approves, or views hospitalization or other health care services or supplies as Medically Necessary, the Claim Administrator will not pay for the hospitalization, services or supplies if the MSA and the Claim Administrator's Physician decide they were not Medically Necessary.

E. MSA PROCEDURE

When you contact the MSA, you should be prepared to provide the following information:

- (1) the name of the attending and/or admitting Physician;
- (2) the name of the Hospital where the admission has been scheduled and/or the location where the service has been scheduled;
- (3) the scheduled admission and/or service date; and
- (4) a preliminary diagnosis or reason for the admission and/or service.

When you contact the MSA, the MSA:

- (1) will review the medical information provided and may follow up with the provider; or
- (2) may determine that the services to be rendered are not Medically Necessary.

F. APPEAL PROCEDURE- MSA

If you or your Physician disagree with the determination of the MSA prior to or while receiving services, you may appeal that decision by contacting the MSA or the Claim Administrator's medical director. In some instances, the resolution of the appeal process will not be completed until your admission or service has occurred and/or your assigned length of stay/service has elapsed. If you disagree with a decision after claim processing has taken place or upon receipt of the notification letter from the MSA, you may appeal that decision by having your Physician call the contact person indicated in the notification letter or by submitting a written request to:

Medical Director Health Care Service Corporation
P. O. Box A3957
Chicago, Illinois 60601

You must exercise the right to this appeal as a precondition to taking any action against the Claim Administrator, either at law or in equity.

Once you have requested this review, you may submit additional information and comments on your Claim to the Claim Administrator as long as you do so within 30 days of the date you asked for a review. Also, during this 30 day period, you may review any pertinent documents held by the Claim Administrator, if you request an appointment in writing.

Within a reasonable period of time appropriate to the medical circumstances, but not later than 30 days after receiving your request for review, the Claim Administrator will send you its decision on the Claim.

G. FAILURE TO NOTIFY

The final decision regarding your course of treatment is solely your responsibility and the MSA will not interfere with your relationship with any provider. However, the Claim Administrator has established the MSA program for the specific purpose of assisting you in determining the course of treatment which will maximize your benefits described in this SPD.

If you fail to notify the MSA and seek preadmission review as required, then upon receipt of the claim it is determined by the Claims Administrator that the services were Medically Necessary, the admission will be subject to a $500 reduction in Benefits in addition to any Deductibles, Copays and/or Coinsurance applicable as described in this SPD. If you fail to notify the MSA and seek preadmission review as required, then upon receipt of the claim it is determined by the Claims Administrator that the services were not Medically Necessary or were Experimental,

Investigational and/or Unproven, it may be the Covered Person's responsibility to pay the full cost of the services received. This amount shall not be eligible for later consideration as an unreimbursed expense under any Benefit Section of this SPD nor can it be applied to your out-of-pocket expense limit, if applicable, as described in this SPD.

H. MEDICARE ELIGIBLE MEMBERS

The provisions of this Medical Services Advisory Program do not apply to you if you are Medicare Eligible and have secondary coverage provided under the Benefit Plan.

I. CLAIM ADMINISTRATOR'S MENTAL HEALTH UNIT

The Claim Administrator's Mental Health Unit has been established to perform preadmission review and length of stay review for your inpatient Hospital services for the treatment of Mental Illness and Substance Abuse. The Mental Health Unit is staffed primarily by Physicians, Psychologists, Clinical Social Workers and registered nurses.

The Mental Health Unit provisions described below are subject to the claims and appeals procedures described in Article VII of this SPD. Preadmission review claims are considered to be "Pre-Service Claims" under this section.

Failure to contact the Mental Health Unit or to comply with the determinations of the Mental Health Unit will result in a reduction of benefits. The Mental Health Unit may be reached twenty-four (24) hours a day, 7 days a week at the toll-free telephone number 1-800-851-7498. Please read the provisions below very carefully.

J. PREADMISSION REVIEW – MENTAL ILLNESS AND SUBSTANCE ABUSE INPATIENT

(1) Inpatient Hospital Preadmission Review

Preadmission review is not a guarantee of benefits. Actual availability of benefits is subject to eligibility and the other terms, conditions, limitations, and exclusions of the Benefit Plan.

Whenever a nonemergency inpatient Hospital admission for the treatment of Mental Illness or Substance Abuse is recommended by your Physician, you must, in order to receive maximum benefits described in this SPD, call the Mental Health Unit. This call must be made at least one day prior to the Hospital admission.

If the proposed Hospital admission does not meet the criteria for Medically Necessary care, it will be referred to a Physician in the Mental Health Unit. If the Mental Health Unit Physician concurs that the proposed admission does not meet the criteria for Medically Necessary care, some days or the entire hospitalization will be denied. Your Physician and the Hospital will be advised by telephone of this determination, with a follow-up notification letter sent to you, your Physician and the Hospital. The Mental Health Unit will issue these notification letters promptly. However, in some instances, these letters will not be received prior to your scheduled date of admission.

(2) Emergency Mental Illness Admission Review

Emergency Mental Illness admission review is not a guarantee of benefits. Actual availability of benefits is subject to eligibility and the other terms, conditions, limitations, and exclusions of the Benefit .

In the event of an emergency Mental Illness admission, you or someone who calls on your behalf must, in order to receive maximum benefits under this SPD, notify the Mental Health Unit no later than 48 hours or as soon as reasonably possible after the admission has occurred. If the call is made any later than the specified time period, you will not be eligible for maximum benefits.

(3) Partial Hospitalization Treatment Program Review

Partial hospitalization treatment program review is not a guarantee of benefits. Actual availability of benefits is subject to eligibility and the other terms, conditions, limitations, and exclusions of the Benefit.

Whenever an admission to a partial hospitalization treatment program is recommended by your Physician, you must, in order to receive maximum benefits described in this SPD, call the Mental Health Unit. This call must be made at least one day prior to the admission.

(4) Length of Stay Review

Length of stay review is not a guarantee of benefits. Actual availability of benefits is subject to eligibility and the other terms, conditions, limitations, and exclusions of the Benefit Plan.

Upon completion of the preadmission or emergency admission review, the Mental Health Unit will send you a letter confirming that you or your representative called the Mental Health Unit. A letter assigning a length of service or length of stay will be sent to your Physician and/or the Hospital.

An extension of the length of stay/service will be based solely on whether continued inpatient care or other health care service is Medically Necessary as determined by the Mental Health Unit. In the event that the extension is determined not to be Medically Necessary, the length of stay/service will not be extended, and the case will be referred to a Mental Health Unit Physician for review.

K. MEDICALLY NECESSARY DETERMINATION

The decision that inpatient care or other health care services or supplies are not Medically Necessary will be determined by the Mental Health Unit. Should the Mental Health Unit Physician concur that the inpatient care or other health care services or supplies are not Medically Necessary, written notification of the decision will be provided to you, your Physician, and/or the Hospital or other provider, and will specify the dates that are not in benefit. For further details regarding Medically Necessary care and other exclusions described in this SPD, see the section entitled "Exclusions from Coverage" in Appendix C.

The Mental Health Unit does not determine your course of treatment or whether you receive particular health care services. The decision regarding the course of treatment and receipt of particular health care services is a matter entirely between you and your Physician. The Mental Health Unit's determination of Medically Necessary care is limited to merely whether a proposed admission, continued hospitalization or other health care service is Medically Necessary under the Benefit Plan.

In the event that the Mental Health Unit determines that all or any portion of an inpatient Hospitalization or other health care service is not Medically Necessary, the Claim Administrator will not be responsible for any related Hospital or other health care service charge incurred.

Remember that your Benefit Plan does not cover the cost of hospitalization or any health care services and supplies that are not Medically Necessary. The fact that your Physician or another health care provider may prescribe, order, recommend or approve a Hospital stay or other health care service or supply does not of itself make such hospitalization, service or supply Medically Necessary. Even if your Physician prescribes, orders, recommends, approves, or views hospitalization or other health care services or supplies as Medically Necessary, the Claim Administrator will not pay for the hospitalization, services or supplies if the Mental Health Unit Physician decides they were not Medically Necessary.

L. MENTAL HEALTH UNIT PROCEDURE

When you contact the Mental Health Unit, you should be prepared to provide the following information:

- (1) the name of the attending and/or admitting provider;

- (2) may determine that the services to be rendered are not Medically Necessary.

M. APPEAL PROCEDURE – DETERMINATIONS OF THE MENTAL HEALTH UNIT

If you or your Physician disagree with the determinations of the Mental Health Unit prior to or while receiving services, you or the provider may appeal that determination by contacting the Mental Health Unit and requesting an expedited appeal. The Mental Health Unit Physician will review your case and determine whether the service was Medically Necessary. You and/or your provider will be notified of the Mental Health Unit Physician's determination within twenty-four (24) hours or no later than the last authorized day. If you or your provider still disagrees with the Mental Health Unit Physician, you may request an appeal in writing.

APPENDIX F – GENERAL COBRA NOTICE

Introduction

This notice contains important information about your right to COBRA continuation coverage, which is a temporary extension of medical, dental, vision, employee assistance and health care flexible spending account coverage under the Plans. This notice generally explains COBRA continuation coverage, when it may become available to you and your family, and what you need to do to protect the right to receive it.

The right to COBRA continuation coverage was created by a federal law, the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 (COBRA). COBRA continuation coverage can become available to you when you would otherwise lose your group health coverage. It can also become available to other members of your family who are covered under the Plans when they would otherwise lose their group health coverage.

COBRA continuation coverage may also become available to other members of your family who are covered under the Plans when they would otherwise lose their group health coverage. You and your spouse and dependents may have additional rights to continued benefits under state law. For additional information, contact HRConnect.

You may have other options available to you when you lose group health coverage. Instead of enrolling in COBRA continuation coverage, there may be other coverage options for you and your family through the Health Insurance Marketplace, Medicaid, or other group health plan coverage options (such as a spouse's plan) through what is called a "special enrollment period." Some of these options may cost less than continuation coverage. You can learn more about many of these options at www.healthcare.gov.

In some cases, you may also have additional rights to continued benefits under state law. For additional information review the booklets, descriptive material and certificates of coverage provided by Devon and third party providers.

Important Note to Medicare Eligibles

It is important to know that once you are terminated from employment, you are considered "inactive" by Medicare. This is true even if you elect to continue your healthcare coverage through COBRA. If you are Medicare eligible and are covered through COBRA, your COBRA coverage will pay as secondary, even if you have not elected Medicare Part B. When coordinating benefits with Medicare, the COBRA Plan will be the Secondary Plan and determine benefits after Medicare, even if you have not enrolled in Part B but are entitled to be enrolled in that Part. Benefits will be determined based on the amount Part B would have paid if you were enrolled. If you choose to elect COBRA but not Medicare Part B, you will be financially responsible for any costs Medicare Part B would have covered.

There are certain time periods within which you must elect Medicare following your termination of employment. For Part B there is a "special enrollment period". This "special enrollment period" applies if you are eligible for Medicare but are waiting to enroll because you (or your spouse) are working and you have group health coverage through an employer-sponsored plan. This "special enrollment period" ends eight months following the month in which your employer-sponsored group coverage ends (or employment ends, if earlier). Thus, the eight month period begins running even if you continue group coverage under COBRA.

If you are Medicare eligible, it is your responsibility to research late enrollment penalties and rights. Please contact Social Security to learn more at www.medicare.gov.

What is COBRA Continuation Coverage?

COBRA continuation coverage is a continuation of coverage when coverage would otherwise end because of a life event known as a “qualifying event.” Specific qualifying events are listed later in this notice. After a qualifying event, COBRA continuation coverage must be offered to each person who is a “qualified beneficiary.” You, your spouse, and your dependent children could become qualified beneficiaries if coverage under the Plans is lost because of the qualifying event. Under the Plans, qualified beneficiaries who elect COBRA continuation coverage must pay for COBRA continuation coverage.

If you are an employee, you will become a qualified beneficiary if you lose your coverage under the Plans because either one of the following qualifying events happens:

- your hours of employment are reduced, or
- your employment ends for any reason other than your gross misconduct.

If you are the spouse of an employee, you will become a qualified beneficiary if you lose your coverage under the Plans because any of the following qualifying events happens:

- your spouse dies;
- your spouse’s hours of employment are reduced;
- your spouse’s employment ends for any reason other than his or her gross misconduct;
- your spouse becomes entitled to Medicare benefits (under Part A, Part B, or both); or
- you become divorced or legally separated from your spouse.

Your dependent children will become qualified beneficiaries if they lose coverage under the Plans because any of the following qualifying events happens:

- the parent-employee dies;
- the parent-employee’s hours of employment are reduced;
- the parent-employee’s employment ends for any reason other than his or her gross misconduct;
- the parent-employee becomes entitled to Medicare benefits (Part A, Part B, or both);
- the parents become divorced or legally separated; or
- the child stops being eligible for coverage under the Plans as a “dependent child.”

When is COBRA Coverage Available?

The Plans will offer COBRA continuation coverage to qualified beneficiaries only after the Plan Administrator has been notified that a qualifying event has occurred. When the qualifying event is the end of employment or reduction of hours of employment, death of the employee, or the employee's becoming entitled to Medicare benefits (under Part A, Part B, or both), the employer must notify the Plan Administrator of the qualifying event.

You Must Give Notice of Some Qualifying Events

For the other qualifying events (divorce or legal separation of the employee and spouse or a dependent child's losing eligibility for coverage as a dependent child), you must notify the Plan Administrator within 60 days of the qualifying event. You must provide notice to:

HR Connect
(855) 810-3555
HRConnect@dnv.com

How is COBRA Coverage Provided?

Once the Plan Administrator receives notice that a qualifying event has occurred, COBRA continuation coverage will be offered to each of the qualified beneficiaries. Each qualified beneficiary will have an independent right to elect COBRA continuation coverage. Covered employees may elect COBRA continuation coverage on behalf of their spouses, and parents may elect COBRA continuation coverage on behalf of their children.

COBRA continuation coverage is a temporary continuation of coverage. When the qualifying event is the death of the employee, the employee's becoming entitled to Medicare benefits (under Part A, Part B, or both), your divorce or legal separation, or a dependent child's losing eligibility as a dependent child, COBRA continuation coverage lasts for up to a total of 36 months. When the qualifying event is the end of employment or reduction of the employee's hours of employment, and the employee became entitled to Medicare benefits less than 18 months before the qualifying event, COBRA continuation coverage for qualified beneficiaries (but not the employee) lasts until 36 months after the date of Medicare entitlement. For example, if a covered employee becomes entitled to Medicare 8 months before the date on which his employment terminates, COBRA continuation coverage for his spouse and children can last up to 36 months after the date of Medicare entitlement, which is equal to 28 months after the date of the qualifying event (36 months minus 8 months). However, the covered employee remains entitled to only the continuation period that ends 18 months after the termination of employment or reduction of hours. Otherwise, when the qualifying event is the end of employment or reduction of the employee's hours of employment, COBRA continuation coverage generally lasts for only up to a total of 18 months. There are two ways in which this 18-month period of COBRA continuation coverage can be extended.

Disability extension of 18-month period of continuation coverage

If you or anyone in your family covered under the Plans is determined by the Social Security Administration to be disabled and you notify the Plan Administrator within 60 days of the Social Security Administration disability determination and prior to the end of the original 18-month period, you and your entire family may be entitled to receive up to an additional 11 months of COBRA continuation coverage, for a total maximum of 29 months. The disability would have to have started at some time before the 60th day of COBRA continuation coverage and must last at least until the end of the 18-month period of continuation coverage. You must provide a copy of the Social Security Administration disability determination to:

Infinisource

15 E Washington St.
PO Box 889
Coldwater, MI 49036-0889
(866) 370-3040

Second qualifying event extension of 18-month period of continuation coverage

If your family experiences another qualifying event while receiving 18 months of COBRA continuation coverage, the spouse and dependent children in your family can get up to 18 additional months of COBRA continuation coverage, for a maximum of 36 months, if notice of the second qualifying event is properly given to the Plans. This extension may be available to the spouse and any dependent children receiving continuation coverage if the employee or former employee dies, becomes entitled to Medicare benefits (under Part A, Part B, or both), or gets divorced or legally separated, or if the dependent child stops being eligible under the Plans as a dependent child, but only if the event would have caused the spouse or dependent child to lose coverage under the Plans had the first qualifying event not occurred.

Special Rule for Medical Care Flexible Spending Account

In the case of the Medical Care Flexible Spending Account, special rules apply. First, COBRA continuation coverage will be offered only if your reimbursements for the year under the Medical Care Flexible Spending Account at the time coverage is lost do not exceed the total contributions to the Spending Account for the year. Second, if COBRA continuation coverage is offered under the Medical Care Flexible Spending Account it will only be offered for the balance of plan year in which coverage is lost and will not be offered for subsequent years.

Electing COBRA Continuation Coverage

To elect continuation coverage, you must complete an election form prescribed by the Plan Administrator and furnish it according to the directions on the form. Each qualified beneficiary has a separate right to elect continuation coverage. For example, the employee's spouse may elect continuation coverage even if the employee does not. Continuation coverage may be elected for only one, several, or for all dependent children who are qualified beneficiaries. A parent may elect to continue coverage on behalf of any dependent children. The employee or the employee's spouse can elect continuation coverage on behalf of all of the qualified beneficiaries.

Paying for COBRA Continuation Coverage

Generally, each qualified beneficiary may be required to pay the entire cost of continuation coverage. The amount a qualified beneficiary may be required to pay may not exceed 102 percent (or, in the case of an extension of continuation coverage due to a disability, 150 percent) of the cost to the group health plan (including both employer and employee contributions) for coverage of a similarly situated plan participant or beneficiary who is not receiving continuation coverage. The required payment for each continuation coverage period for each option is described in this notice.

If You Have Questions

Questions concerning your Plans or your COBRA continuation coverage rights should be addressed to the contact or contacts identified below. For more information about your rights under ERISA, including COBRA, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), and other laws affecting group health plans, contact the nearest Regional or District Office of the U.S. Department of Labor's Employee Benefits Security Administration (EBSA) in your area or visit the EBSA website at www.dol.gov/ebsa. (Addresses and phone numbers of Regional and District EBSA Offices are available through EBSA's website.)

Keep Your Plans Informed of Address Changes

In order to protect your family's rights, you should keep the Plan Administrator informed of any changes in the addresses of family members. You should also keep a copy, for your records, of any notices you send to the Plan Administrator.

Continuation Coverage During Military Service

Employees and dependents who lose health coverage due to the employee's military leave of absence under the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994 (also referred to as "USERRA") may elect to continue coverage for up to 24 months. Any individual who elects to continue such coverage will be required to make the same premium payments as a COBRA participant.

Conversion to an Individual Policy

At the end of the 18, 29, or 36-month COBRA continuation coverage period, you may be eligible to convert your coverage to an individual policy. If you are eligible, you will be required to make the necessary arrangements directly with the insurance carriers. The necessary information should be contained in the materials provided by the insurance carriers. If not, you should check with HRConnect. Conversion coverage may not be the same as the coverage you have under the Plans. Instead, it will be one of the insurance carrier's standard conversion policies. There is no conversion option applicable to the Medical Care Flexible Spending Account.

APPENDIX G – HIPAA PRIVACY & PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION

The following provisions permit the Plans to disclose your protected health information (“PHI”), as defined in HIPAA, to the Plan Sponsor to the extent that such PHI is necessary for the Plan Sponsor to carry out its administrative functions related to the Plans.

Disclosure To The Plan Sponsor: The Plan (or health insurance issuer with the Plan’s permission) may disclose your PHI to the Plan Sponsor that is necessary for the Plan Sponsor to carry out the following administrative functions related to the Plans.

The Plan Sponsor needs access to PHI to:

- determine whether you and/or your dependent are eligible for benefits under the Plans;
- determine the amount of benefits, if any, you and/or your dependent are entitled to from the Plans;
- determine or find facts that are relevant to any claim for benefits from the Plans;
- determine whether a participant’s benefits should be terminated or suspended;
- perform duties relating to the establishment, maintenance and administration of the Plans;
- communicate with participants regarding the status of their claims;
- recover any overpayment or mistaken payments made to claimants; and
- handle participant issues with regard to subrogation and third party claims.

The Plan Sponsor may use and disclose your PHI provided to it from the Plans (or health insurance issuer) only for the administrative purposes described above.

Limitations And Requirements Related To The Use and Disclosure of PHI: The Plan Sponsor agrees to the following limitations and requirements related to its use and disclosure of your PHI received from the Plans:

- (a) Use and Further Disclosure. The Plan Sponsor will not use or further disclose your PHI other than as permitted or required by this document or as required by law.
 - (i) Minimum Necessary Standard. When using or disclosing your PHI or when requesting your PHI from the Plans, the Plan Sponsor will make reasonable efforts to limit the PHI to the minimum amount necessary to accomplish the intended purpose of the use, disclosure or request.
- (b) Agents and Subcontractors. The Plan Sponsor will require any agents, including subcontractors, to whom it provides your PHI received from the Plans to agree to the same restrictions and conditions that apply to the Plan Sponsor with respect to such information.
- (c) Employment-Related Actions and Decisions. Except as permitted by HIPAA and other applicable law, the Plan Sponsor will not use your PHI to take employment-related actions or make employment-related decisions about you, or in connection with any other employee benefit plan of the Plan Sponsor.
- (d) Reporting of Improper Use or Disclosure. The Plan Sponsor shall promptly report to the Plans any improper use or disclosure of your PHI of which it becomes aware.

(e) Adequate Protection. The Plan Sponsor will provide adequate protection of your PHI and separation between the Plans and the Plan Sponsor by:

- (1) ensuring that only the privacy employees as defined in the Devon Energy HIPAA Privacy Policy will have access to your PHI provided by the Plans;
- (2) restricting access to and use of your PHI to only the employees identified above and only for the administrative functions performed by the Plan Sponsor on behalf of the Plans that are described above;
- (3) requiring any agents of the Plans who receive your PHI to abide by the Plans' privacy rules; and
- (4) using the following procedure to resolve issues of noncompliance by the employees identified above.
 - a. The Plans will be immediately notified, and the Plans and Plan Sponsor will work together to remedy the situation and mitigate any harmful effect resulting from the use or disclosure of PHI.
 - b. After an investigation into the alleged incident, those employees who are found to be in violation of these policies or the HIPAA Privacy Regulations will be sanctioned as is deemed appropriate.
 - c. The Plans and Plan Sponsor will work together to create new safeguards and procedures so as to prevent a future incident of noncompliance.

(f) Return or Destruction of PHI. If feasible, the Plan Sponsor will return or destroy all PHI received from the Plans that the Plan Sponsor maintains in any form, and retain no copies of such information when no longer needed for the purpose for which disclosure was made. If such return or destruction is not feasible, the Plan Sponsor will limit further uses and disclosures to those purposes that make the return or destruction of the information infeasible.

(g) Participant Rights. The Plan Sponsor will provide you with the following rights:

- (1) the right to access to your PHI;
- (2) the right to amend your PHI upon request (or the Plan Sponsor will explain to you in writing why the requested amendment was denied) and incorporate any such amendment into your PHI; and
- (3) the right to an accounting of all disclosures of your PHI.

(h) Cooperation with HHS. The Plan Sponsor will make its books, records, and internal practices relating to the use and disclosure of PHI received from the Plans available to the Department of Health and Human Services for verification of the Plans' compliance with HIPAA.

Certification: The Plans will disclose PHI to the Plan Sponsor only upon receipt of a Certification by the Plan Sponsor that the Plan documents have been amended in accordance with HIPAA, and that the Plan Sponsor will protect the PHI as described above.

Security Standards Requirement: Plan Sponsor will take the following steps to reasonably and appropriately safeguard the electronic protected health information that it receives, transmits, creates or maintains from, or on behalf of, the Plans in its capacity as the sponsor of the Plans:

- implement administrative, physical and technical safeguards that reasonably and appropriately protect the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the electronic PHI that it creates, receives, maintains or transmits on behalf of the Plans;
- implement reasonable and appropriate security measures for the purpose of ensuring that there is adequate separation required by 45 CFR §164.504(f)(2)(iii), between the Plan Sponsor and the Plans that it sponsors;
- ensure that any agent, including a subcontractor, to whom it provides electronic protected health information agrees to implement reasonable and appropriate security measures to protect the information; and
- report to the Plans any security incident of which it becomes aware; including any attempted or successful unauthorized access, use, disclosure or destruction of information or interference with system operations, that involve electronic protected health information provided to Plan Sponsor by, or on behalf of, the Plans that it sponsors.

APPENDIX H – MEDICAID AND CHIP NOTICE

Medicaid and the Children’s Health Insurance Program (CHIP) Offer Free or Low-Cost Health Coverage to Children and Families

If you are eligible for health coverage sponsored by Devon, but are unable to afford the premiums, some States have premium assistance programs that can help pay for coverage. These States use funds from their Medicaid or CHIP programs to help people who are eligible for Company-sponsored health coverage but need assistance in paying their health premiums.

Already enrolled in Medicaid or CHIP. If you or your dependents are already enrolled in Medicaid or CHIP and you live in a State listed below, you can contact your State Medicaid or CHIP office to find out if premium assistance is available.

Not enrolled in Medicaid or CHIP. If you or your dependents are not currently enrolled in Medicaid or CHIP, and you think you or any of your dependents might be eligible for either of these programs, you can contact your State Medicaid or CHIP office or dial 1-877-KIDS NOW or www.insurekidsnow.gov to find out how to apply. If you qualify, you can ask the State if it has a program that might help you pay the premiums for the Company-sponsored health plan.

Once it is determined that you or your dependents are eligible for premium assistance under Medicaid or CHIP, you will be permitted to enroll yourself and your dependents in the health coverage sponsored by Devon – as long as you and your dependents are eligible, but not already enrolled in the plan. This is called a “special enrollment” opportunity, and you must request coverage within 60 days of being determined eligible for premium assistance.

APPENDIX I – GENERAL MEDICARE PART D NOTICE

Please read this notice carefully and keep it where you can find it. This notice has information about your current prescription drug coverage with Devon and about your options under Medicare’s prescription drug coverage. This information can help you decide whether or not you want to join a Medicare drug plan. If you are considering joining, you should compare your current coverage, including which drugs are covered at what cost, with the coverage and costs of the plans offering Medicare prescription drug coverage in your area. Information about where you can get help to make decisions about your prescription drug coverage is at the end of this notice.

There are two important things you need to know about your current coverage and Medicare’s prescription drug coverage:

1. Medicare prescription drug coverage became available in 2006 to everyone with Medicare. You can get this coverage if you join a Medicare Prescription Drug Plan or join a Medicare Advantage Plan (like an HMO or PPO) that offers prescription drug coverage. All Medicare drug plans provide at least a standard level of coverage set by Medicare. Some plans may also offer more coverage for a higher monthly premium.
2. Devon has determined that the prescription drug coverage offered by the Devon Energy Corporation Employee Benefit Plan is, on average for all plan participants, expected to pay out as much as standard Medicare prescription drug coverage pays and is therefore considered Creditable Coverage. Because your existing prescription coverage is Creditable Coverage, you can keep this coverage and not pay a higher premium (a penalty) if you later decide to join a Medicare drug plan.

When Can You Join A Medicare Drug Plan?

You can join a Medicare drug plan when you first become eligible for Medicare and each year from October 15th to December 7th. However, if you lose your current creditable prescription drug coverage, through no fault of your own, you will also be eligible for a two (2) month Special Enrollment Period (SEP) to join a Medicare drug plan.

What Happens To Your Current Coverage If You Decide to Join A Medicare Drug Plan?

If you decide to join a Medicare drug plan, your current Devon coverage will be affected.

What Happens When

If you...	Then...
Want to continue your Devon sponsored medical and prescription drug coverage...	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ You should not enroll in Medicare Part D coverage
Drop or lose your Devon sponsored medical coverage and go 63 continuous days or longer without prescription drug coverage that’s at least as good as Medicare’s prescription drug coverage...	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Your monthly premium for Medicare Part D will go up at least 1% per month for every month after that you did not have Medicare Part D coverage*

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ You will have to pay this higher premium as long as you have Medicare Part D coverage ▪ You may have to wait until the next November to enroll in Medicare Part D coverage
--	---

If you do decide to join a Medicare drug plan and drop your current Devon coverage, be aware that you and your dependents will not be able to get this coverage back.

When Will You Pay A Higher Premium (Penalty) To Join A Medicare Drug Plan?

You should also know that if you drop or lose your current coverage with Devon and don't join a Medicare drug plan within 63 continuous days after your current coverage ends, you may pay a higher premium (a penalty) to join a Medicare drug plan later.

If you go 63 continuous days or longer without creditable prescription drug coverage, your monthly premium may go up by at least 1% of the Medicare base beneficiary premium per month for every month that you did not have that coverage. For example, if you go nineteen months without creditable coverage, your premium may consistently be at least 19% higher than the Medicare base beneficiary premium. You may have to pay this higher premium (a penalty) as long as you have Medicare prescription drug coverage. In addition, you may have to wait until the following October to join.

For More Information About This Notice Or Your Current Prescription Drug Coverage...

Contact the person listed below for further information. NOTE: You'll get this notice each year. You will also get it before the next period you can join a Medicare drug plan, and if this coverage through Devon changes. You also may request a copy of this notice at any time.

For More Information About Your Options Under Medicare Prescription Drug Coverage...

More detailed information about Medicare plans that offer prescription drug coverage is in the "Medicare & You" handbook. You'll get a copy of the handbook in the mail every year from Medicare. You may also be contacted directly by Medicare drug plans.

For more information about Medicare prescription drug coverage:

- Visit www.medicare.gov
- Call your State Health Insurance Assistance Program (see the inside back cover of your copy of the "Medicare & You" handbook for their telephone number) for personalized help
- Call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227). TTY users should call 1-877-486-2048

Remember: Keep this Creditable Coverage notice. If you decide to join one of the Medicare drug plans, you may be required to provide a copy of this notice when you join to show whether or not you have maintained creditable coverage and, therefore, whether or not you are required to pay a higher premium (a penalty).
